

Clarice's corner

Howdy folks, and welcome to this corner. I know you're gonna be surprised to find this in the paper agin, specially after I's a telling you what the Editor said a out running it til you folks begin to cancel yore descriptions--Probyly you know about some of yore neighbors a cancelling theirs an you're a wondering what happened about the Editor a saying I'd hafta go when that commenced to taking place. Well, I'll tell you how I handled that. Natcherly he jumped rite a straddle of me when the first one of you had yore name struck off'n the mailing list an I had to thank fast. He's a crowding me! I told him I'd buy up them that quit him. That kinda cooled him down but it shore has caused a problem fer me. You see I dont want to let all them papers just lay around and not read 'em, that'd be a waste, but durned if I see how I'm gonna be able to read 'em all.

Guess you noticed in last weeks's corner that this here Editor can't even misspell my name rite. Now folks'll think a trying to start us something like Miss Abby. whew! I'll probly never be able to live that down.

I bet we got one of the maddest Mayors and I know we got one of the bravest Policemans they is anywhere in this part of the country. Tell you what happens. The other day I seen this police a sticking a ticket on the Mayor's car fer overparking. Now how bout that? I know that tuck a heap o guts fer him to do that but he seen his duty on he done it. He ain't playing no favorites a tall. No Siree. An, too, you know he may jest be tired a working for the city, I never hung around there to see what tuck place when that ole mayor got back to his car. I found me some business elsewhere, and that police never tarried long neither--but maybe he left fer difrent reasons. If that'd a been me that got one of them tickets I betcha they'd a give me 30 days in the electric cheer when they tried me, but chances are that ole Mayor'll git a heep lighter sentence cause I thank he's the on that tries them kinda cases.

I's a talking to a young feller from Texas last week an he's a telling me he never seen trees as tall as these we got around here. I seen he's pretty well impressed an I figgered to impress him a little bit more so I told him they was pretty tall but ackshully they's stunted, I told him he oughta see some of 'em on out in the county. Imagine anybody from TEXAS admittin somethin like that. I's afraid he's agonna ast me how come em stunted, but if he hadda I mint to give him a answer. You know me.

Folks is done a thanking bout the Waggin Train agin. You can tell by the looks on their faces, but I don't blease some of 'em is a thanking as HARD about it tho, as they did last year, cause they've cut down on the size of the brush heaps. I'll git in touch with you next week--Maybe.

You can write me in care of this newspaper, Box 190, Murphy, N. C. ---I hope.
