Miss Linda Louise Palmer Becomes Bride of Robert David Eckard

Miss Linda Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Palmer of Murphy became the bride of Robert David Eckard, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Eckard of Atlanta, Georgia Sunday, May 14 at four P. M. at the First Baptist Church in Murphy. The Rev. William J. Thompson, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was by Mrs. Doyle Burch, Jr. of Murphy soloist and Jimmy Kimsey, of Murphy organist. Mrs. Burch sang "My Own True Love" and "The Lord's Prayer". Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pure Peau de sole with scalloped Sabrina neckline designed with seed pearls on chantilly lace on the fitted bodice and front panel. The full skirt ended in a chapel train of chantilly lace. Her finger tip veil of imported illusion fell from a tiara of matching chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and lily of the valley. The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of a purple orchid. The mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress with accessories and a corsage of cymbidiums. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was overlaid with blue cloth and accented with a white net held by small bouquets of blue iris and lily of the valley. The centerpiece was an arrangement of blue and white spring flowers. Tall white tapers in silver candelabra completed the table decorations.

Miss Becky Rhodes, bride-elect was honored with a shower Friday evening, May 12, at the First Baptist Church. The color scheme used for the decorations in the reception room was yellow and white. The gifts were arranged on tables decorated with a frilly umbrella with yellow satin bows, yellow orchids and candles. An arrangement of tulips was on the piano and large baskets of yellow jasmine were placed around the room. Punch and cake were served
