Andrews is Proud Of L. B. Nichols

by Lucy Laughter

Andrews is proud of many of its citizens. One citizen that Andrews is especially proud of with good reason is L. B. Nichols.

Forty-one years ago when Mr. Nichols came to Andrews to be principal of the High School, he didn't realize how much Andrews and Cherokee County needed his intellect, his civic spirit, his warm personality. But Andrews made him feel needed, and most welcome, and he became a part of the community, and took an active part in its development.

He taught eight years in the school. In 1928 he opened Nichols Department Store. In 1949, he was elected to serve as Congressman for this district.

He serves his church daily. Mr. Nichols has fitted himself into the life of his adopted town, Andrews, and into the hearts of its people.

Cathy Van Gorder Honored On Birthday

Andrews - On May 6, a fun-seeking group of young girls gathered at the home of Dr. Van Gorder to help Cathy celebrate her twelfth birthday.

Lunch was served from an attractively laid buffet table on the patio. This consisted of the traditional hamburgers, potato chips, and coca-cola accompanied by a dainty hostess tray. Dessert was, of course, birthday cake and ice cream. Cathy's cake was the gift of her grandmother. The afternoon was spent in games and a contest in which Suzanne won the prize. Gale Jordan won the prize in a second contest.

Those enjoying this festive occasion were: Diane Watson, Lou Ann Long, Nancy Harris, Joy Bristol, Linda Chandler, Gayle Jordan, Susan Rodda, Suzanne Van Gorder, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lockerby, Mrs. H. A. Van Gorder, Cathy and her Mother, an Aunt Nelle.

"Sunshine Box" Sent To Former Hospital Patient

Andrews - A "Sunshine Box" was sent by Valleytown Home Demonstration Club on Friday, to Mrs. Joseph Holton Jones of Wilmington, Dela. The box consisted of various articles, made by members, such as guest towels, luncheon set, tin craft, enamel ash trays, apron, painting, pot holders, etc.

While on vacation Mrs. Jones suffered a stroke at Topton and was a patient in the District Memorial Hospital for several weeks. She was taken by ambulance recently to Memorial hospital in Wilmington and is improving daily.

Although many of the members didn't meet Mrs. Jones, they had the satisfaction of participating in this friendship gesture and hope Mrs. Jones in receiving these gifts will think of Andrews and its people and return for a visit some day.

Lutheran Women

Andrews - The ladies of the St. Andrews Lutheran Church held their May meeting at the Church on Wednesday at 3 p.m. Mrs. Roy Trexler and Mrs. J.G. Carrier were hostesses.

Reverend Roy Trexler presented the program.

New officers were elected at this meeting for 1961-62 year. They were: president, Mrs. J. G. Carrier; vice-president, Mrs. Wayne Ladd; treasurer, Betty Sue Best; secretary, Mrs. Harry Wolfe.

Andrews Wins

Andrews - The newly organized Smoky Mountain Independent Baseball League opened its season Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with Andrews winning over Cullowhee 7 to 0.

Andrews Little League To Open Season

Andrews - Andrews Little League baseball teams will open their regular league season Saturday, May 20 at 5:15 p.m. The first game will be Sparkplugs vs. Wolfpacks.

Mayor Percy B. Ferebee will attend opening ceremonies and make the first throw.

Foreign Missions

Andrews - Mrs. Hugh Lamb of Asheville and Presbyterian chairman of foreign missions was guest speaker at a family night supper held at Presbyterian Educational Building on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Herbert Sheidy, local chairman of foreign missions, introduced Mrs. Lamb.

Mrs. J. J. Stone of Asheville and formerly of Andrews, assisted Mrs. Lamb in showing slides illustrating her talk.

Mrs. Lamb told the group of her recent journey to Korea, where she visited her daughter, June, a missionary in Kroea. She also told of other Presbyterian mission fields through out the world that she visited.

Mrs. Garland Haney, Jr. Honored

Mrs. Garland Haney Jr. was honored at a bridal gift tea on Saturday afternoon, May 13, in the Regal Hotel dining room.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Ed Brumby, Mrs. Jim Gibbs, Mrs. Ruth Forsyth, Mrs. Walter Mauney, Mrs. Peyton Ivie, Miss Addie Leatherwood, Mrs. Edwin Hyde, and Mrs. Bob Bault.

Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the dining room. The punch table which was laid with an imported lace cloth was centered with an arrangement of rosebuds, violets, stephanotis, and ragged robins. Pink candles and nosegays of the same flowers were used in the silver candelabra.

Receiving with the bride were her mother, Mrs. W. A. Hoover, Mrs. Garland Haney, the groom's mother, and the bride's cousin, Miss Carol Putnam, of Gastonia.

Mrs. Hugh Putnam of Gastonia, the bride's aunt, presided over the bride's book. Punch, miniature cakes and sandwiches were served to the many guests who called during the afternoon.

'Another Rebecca'

A little girl with pretty brown eyes, Looked up with the sweetest smile, Tho' she was in pain and perhaps in fear, She hid it in feminine style.

She has a dollie, a pillow of red, And a pretty ribbon there In her jet black hair just above her bangs, That surrounds her face that's fair.

Her name is one I would have chosen Had it been up to me, For I knew another by the same name-- So much fun and pleasure had we.

That was in the sweet long ago, But it seems as yesterday When she was the mother, and so was I, Where we took our own dolls to play.

The name to me is always dear, And in each Rebecca I see, The same sweet face of a little girl That used to play with me.
