

Brenda Ann Quinn Wins 4-H Club Dress Revue

Miss Brenda Ann Quinn will represent Cherokee County, Wednesday, June 14, at district demonstration day, as Cherokee County dress revue winner.

The district meeting will be held at Clyde A. Erwin High School in Asheville. The county dress revue was held on June 12 at Murphy Library with about thirty parents and friends to see the 4-Hers model the dresses they had made.

Miss Frieda Dean Morgan, assistant home economics agent of Clay County assisted by Miss Betty Jo Lyda of the Local Extension office judged the garments.

The blue ribbon winner in the senior group was Brenda with Linda Smith receiving second place.

In the junior group Patsy Anderson won the blue ribbon with Judy Quinn as runner up. Each winner was the recipient of enough fabric to make a beautiful garment. This material was given by Lena's, The Fabric Shop, The Cloth Shop (Andrews) and the Cherokee County Home Demonstration Council.

This event is a highlight in the careers of the 4-H girls participating because each member has the experience of competition and learns considerable skills and is proud of her achievement.
