Centennial Chatter

By Mrs. Quentin Moore
Everyone in Clay County is having a part in the Centennial celebration. Saturday the county canines were presented. There were some handsome dogs parading in the show ring on the courthouse square. One of the biggest hits was the litter of beagle pups which accompanied the mother beagle, a contestant. The pet's class was popular with the children who led their dogs around proudly. (or the dogs led the children, in some cases!)

Centennial Sunday proved to be another interesting experience in our county celebration. Reports from several churches showed that most of the congregations were dressed in their Centennial best. At least one man received a top hat for a Fathers Day present and wore it to church. There were thoughts about the church services 100 years ago. Folks were singing the same hymns then that we all did Sunday. And no doubt the prayers were for peace too.

Quite a group of local people donned their Centennial outfits Monday afternoon and gathered around the courthouse lawn while John Parris, Asheville Citizen columnist, took photographs and collected local color for his paper. The pictures should be in Sunday's issue. Clay County's birthday will be noted!

Understand there will be a first aid station set up in the courthouse, July 1. Our public health nurse will be in charge. It will also be a lost and found center for the inevitable children and articles which get misplaced in a large crowd of people such as there'll be in town that day. A good service!

Now the final and busy week ending the Centennial is coming up. Beginning Saturday night with the Centennial square dance, there'll be a round of activities for everyone. Next week will be the fashion show, and beard contest, the beauty contest and talent show, the fireworks and antique displays, the Big Day Saturday, and lastly, the union church service on the square on Sunday afternoon, July 2. Hope everyone will be able to go to each event and wish little old Clay County a Happy Birthday!

Don't forget to get a Clay County History booklet.

Pub'c is Invited To Real Live Centennial Wedding

Miss Minnette Moffitt and Eugene Moore invite the public to attend their wedding at the Truett Memorial Baptist Church in Hayesville, at 5:00 p.m., Saturday, July 1. Miss Moffitt and Mr. Moore also invite their many friends to attend their Dress Rehearsal on Friday afternoon, June 30, at 3:00 p.m., in the Truett Memorial Baptist Church. John Parris will make pictures. Because of the small seating capacity of the church, it is felt that many local people would like to attend the rehearsal to lend atmosphere to the pictures and have an opportunity to see what the wedding will be like.

Saturday Is Pioneer Day At Hayesville

A real program of interest is set for Saturday in town. The music will start as usual at 1:00 p.m., and the main event will be at 2:00 p.m. This will be "Pioneer Day" for the older citizens and a children's contest of Centennial attire and cutest showing of the children. The childrens age group will be divided in two classes: the 1st, class is age 1 through 3, and the 2nd class is 4, 5, and 6 years old. So mothers, get the small ones dressed in their best and get them out. There will be prizes given for the boys and girls in each division.

The Centennial committee hopes all of our older citizens will be on the square Saturday. If you have Centennial clothes, wear them, and if you haven't an outfit, come on in and have an evening of visiting with each other. There will be a beard contest for the older male citizens and Centennial attire for the women. This age group will be 70 and older. There will be prizes for this in the form of presentation of the History Booklet that is not out. This will be something to treasure for the future and to enjoy reading now.

The big square dance starts at 8:00 p.m. in the new gym. This is the first Centennial square dance and promises to be top notch. Fellows, get your ladies and get to the gym for an evening of real fun. A fine string band will be there waiting to start the "Toe Tapping".
