Words Of Life

Rev. E. B. Whitson
 Andrews Presbyterian Church

"Thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's." II Chron. 20:15.

How I wish that those words might be on the desk of every minister and written over the chance of every church: "The battle is not yours, but God's." God is still on the throne. He is the Lord of history. He has not surrendered His sovereignty. The issue will not be determined finally by either the wisdom or energy of men but by the power of God.

One need of the Christian church of our time is consecrated imagination. We ought always to be thinking of new ways of advancing Christ's Kingdom and of challenging men and nations. For instance we ought to be praying for the evangelization of Russia and her satellites. "But," somebody objects, "what useful purpose could it serve? These Russian leaders and the communist hordes that follow them are less than human." Are they? "Look," they say, "at the magnitude of the anti-Christian forces arrayed against us. Look at the almost limitless man power of China and Russia. These multitudes are constantly exposed to atheistic propaganda. What hope is there that the Christian witness can prevail against such powerful opposition?"

There was a somewhat parallel situation in Judas centuries before the birth of Christ when Jehoshaphat was on the throne. News reached his kingdom that the armies of a hostile neighboring country were approaching his frontiers in great force. Panic spread among the people. said: "We have no power with which to meet this great company that threatens us." In this moment of national crisis a prophet arose. Said this prophet speaking to Jehoshaphat and to the people of Judah: "Thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's." The trouble with us is that we have not faith enough in the power of prayer to change the hearts of men. The God who could lay His
