Norma Jarrett To Be Case Worker In Kentucky

Miss Norma Geoge Jarrett graduate of Berea College with a major in sociology and a minor in philosophy and religion, has joined the staff of the Christian Church Childrens Home in Danville, Ky. as case worker. This was announced by Henry Lowe, Supt.

While at Berea Miss Jarrett worked with the American Red Cross, Welfare Dept. and the Travelers Aid. She was active in Sociology, French and psychology.

The new case worker will give her full time to intake studies, placing children in boarding, foster and adoptive homes, and counseling with children and emotional problems.

Lowe pointed out that a unique part of the work done by this home has been the placing of school age children in foster and adoptive homes. With Miss Jarrett's aid, the home hopes to accelerate the program.

Miss Jarrett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jarrett of Hayesville. She graduated from Hayesville High School before entering Berea College.
