By Lion W.F.Elliott
It is the purpose of this paper to give a brief history of Lionism together with something of its purpose and the reason for its existence.

In order to do this, it is necessary first to relate something of the life andwork ot its Founder, Melvin Jones of Chicago, Mr. Jones, the Grand Old Man of Lions International, was born in the state of Arizona on January 23, 1879. He was the son of Captain Calvin Jones of the United States Army, Only a small part of the life of young

Jones was spent in his native state. The family was moved to the state of Illinois before his education was completed. It was in this state, and mostly in Chicago, that he spent the greater part of his life, It was in the city of Chicago that he reached the end of his earthly journey and passed peacefully into the great beyond on June I, 1960.

As a young man, Mr. Jones was faced with that question that has puzzled many another young person, namely, "What shall I do with this life of mine?" At first he wished to study law, but he had a good singing voice and seriously considered going into training for a career in vocal music.

He studied neither law nor music but went into the insurance business. In this venture he was successful and was soon sole owner of the Melvin Jones Insurance

He was a person of unusually keen insight, He had the capacity to see opportunities were passed, Looking beyond his own private interest, he saw the wretched condition of people who were in greatneed of a friend who was willing to render some timely service. This vision engendered in the mind and heart of Mr. Jones the determination to do something for the relief of those he felt that the object of the circle was too limited. Their sole purpose was to help each reach beyond the confines of their own club room, Mr. Jones' idea was that they should be, to some extent, interested in the betterment of the class of people who were less fortunate than the he began to propund the idea so beautifully set forth in this
