Dove and Rail

Seasons Announced

The N.C. Wildlife Commission has announced the seasons and bag limits on doves, rails, gallinules, woodcock and Wilson's snipe. Dates for the gunning season for these birds were set from a framework of dates established by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Clyde P. Patton, Executive Director of the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission, said that the Commission has again selected a split season for dove hunting, the first segment being from September 9 through October 14, and the second from December 13 through January 15. Shooting hours will again be from noon until sunset, and the bag limits -- the same as last year -- will be 12 daily and 24 in possession after the first day's shooting.

Next on the list are marsh hens (rails and gallinules) with the season running from September 20 through November 28. Bag limits will be 25 daily or in possession for sora rails, and 15 daily or 30 in possession for Virginia and clapper rails, and gallinules.
Shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset.

The woodcock season will open Thanksgiving Day, November 23, and extend through January 1, 1962, with a daily bag of four birds and a possession limit of eight.
Shooting hours for woodcock will be from sunrise to sunset.
Wilson's snipe may be hunted from November 23 through December 22, with an allowable daily bag and possession limit of eight birds and shooting hours from sunrise to sunset.

Patton warned migratory game hunters that a new federal regulation this year requires hunters to "make a reasonable effort to retrieve any migratory game bird killed by him and include such bird in his daily bag limit."
