Children of the World
 Who cares for the hungry children,
 The ones too weak to move?
 Children for whom there is not enough food,
 And too little or often none at all?
 Who will dry tears,
 Tears of despair?
 Who will lift up the heads
 That hang low in hopelessness?
 Who will pick them up
 When they fall?
 Who could nourish that flicker of hope
 However small?
 Will they ever live as others do?
 Will their agony never cease,
 Their suffering never decrease?
 Can they hope to survive?
 Oh God let them live with dignity
 Or allow them to die.
 For theirs is misery unspeakable
 Not life at all.
 L.D. Malcolm

W.J. Strickland honored as HEW Fellow

W.J. Strickland, who was appointed as an HEW Fellow for the 1976-77 program year is shown above with his HEW Fellows citation signed by Honorable Joseph A. Califano, Jr. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare presented by Mr. Eugene Eldenberg, Deputy under Secretary for Inter-governmental Affairs in a ceremony held recently in Washington, D.C.

K.A. MacDonald Memorial Dedication at Hoke High School

The K.A. MacDonald Memorial Dedication was held Sunday, November 6, 1977, 3:00 p.m. at the Hoke County High School, Raeford, North Carolina with James W. Turlington, principal of Raeford Elementary School, presiding.
 The benediction was given by John C. Ropp, Minister of Raeford Presbyterian Church.
 An open house of the restored Glen Echo School followed.
 All participants in the program had worked under Mr. MacDonald, except the minister.
 The K.A. MacDonald Building will consist of the new gym and other administration offices.
 Mr. MacDonald served as Superintendent of Hoke County Schools from 1935 through 1959 when he retired and then worked a few years as a car salesman in Raeford.
 Those attending the ceremony from Mrs. Chavis' family were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dial of Hoke County; Sgt. and Mrs. Leslie Chavis of Pembroke; Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Locklear of Pembroke; Tommie Chavis, Jr. and friend, Mrs. Annie McNeill of Hoke County.
 Mrs. Mary Lee Goins, a former teacher of Hoke County and from the Prospect Community, also attended.
 History of the Glen Echo School was given by Mrs. Marshall Newton, a former teacher of the county.
 The invocation was given by Floyd W. Caldwell, principal of Scurlock Elementary School.
 Recognition of guests and Resolution of Thanks for both counties, Hoke and Robeson, were given by Mrs. Jessie B. Chavis, a former teacher of Hoke County, who had worked seventeen years under Mr. MacDonald.
 The dedication was given by Neill L. McFadyen, a former school board member.
 Unveiling of plaque was performed by Miss Anne MacDonald, a granddaughter.
 Band selections were given by the High (Hoke) School Band under the direction of Jimmy James.

MT. AIRY NEWS
 By Violet Locklear

Rev. James Dial delivered the message on Sunday morning at Mt. Airy Church. The Brotherhood rendered special music.
 The singing will be held this Sunday night. We invite all choirs to come and participate.
 Mr. Dexter Locklear was honored on Sunday with a Homecoming will he held the 3rd Sunday at Evergreen Holiness Church. A singing will be held in the afternoon. The pastor is the Rev. Joseph Locklear of South Carolina.

 Going to McCain Hospital Tuesday for a check-up was Mrs. Rockie Jane Locklear. Accompanying her were Mrs. Gladys Jacobs and her two daughters, Mrs. Odessa and Violet Locklear. The doctor reports her condition is fair.
 There was a large crowd from this area who attended the 43rd FCX Annual Stockholders Meeting in Raleigh, November 3, 1977. Entertainment was by the Dixie Melody Boys. There were several speakers on program. The address was given by the Honorable Charles Rose, Rep. of the U.S. Congress, which I think everyone enjoyed. They held a silent prayer in honor of the deceased member, Mr. Lambert Lewis of Pembroke, who passed away May 9, 1977. He had been with the company for 36 years. There were two buses which made the tour. On one bus going from Mt. Airy were Mrs. Mary F. Locklear, Mrs. Goldie Lowery, Mrs. Odessa Locklear, Mrs. Violet Locklear, Mrs. Lorraine Sampson, Mrs. Jennie Fay and Winnie Lee Locklear, Mrs. Zedie Rae Dimery, Mrs. Leona

THOUGHT FOR TODAY
 The light of God surrounds me
 The love of God enfolds me
 The power of God protects me
 The presence of God watches over me. Wherever I am, God is!

Pembroke Jayettes Help Yancy

Yancy Hunt who was severely burned in an explosion almost a year ago was recently presented a donation of $100 by the Pembroke Jayettes. The money was raised during a rummage sale sponsored by the Jayettes on September 17.
