

Surprise Party Held

A surprise birthday party was held for Gerald Revels from Laurinburg on Saturday, January 27, at the Town and Country Restaurant beginning at 5 p.m. The party was buffet style and was given by his wife, Rachel. The center of attraction was his birthday cake which depicted man barbecuing two pigs. This cake was of special significance to Mr. Revels because of his affiliation with Revels' Bar-b-que.

Those attending included his sister, Mrs. Gretchen Thaggard of Decatur, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. John Frink and daughter, Gina, of North Myrtle Beach, SC; Reedy Sampson; Mrs. Dora Ozendine; Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Lowry; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Revels and children Dennis, Keith, Robert and Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ray Revels and daughters, Sarah Louise Cummings and Fanny Graham all of Pembroke; Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Jacobs and daughter Jewell; Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Locklear and son; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Strickland; Miss Maxine Locklear and Miss Lory Clark, all of Maxton; and Peggy Revels of Garner, NC.

PSU to host Tennis Tournament

Pembroke-- Pembroke State university will host the seventh annual Indoor Tennis Tournament Feb. 23-25 in the Jones Health and Physical Education Center on the PSU campus.

The tournament will include men's and women's singles and doubles. Also mixed doubles tournament will also be played.

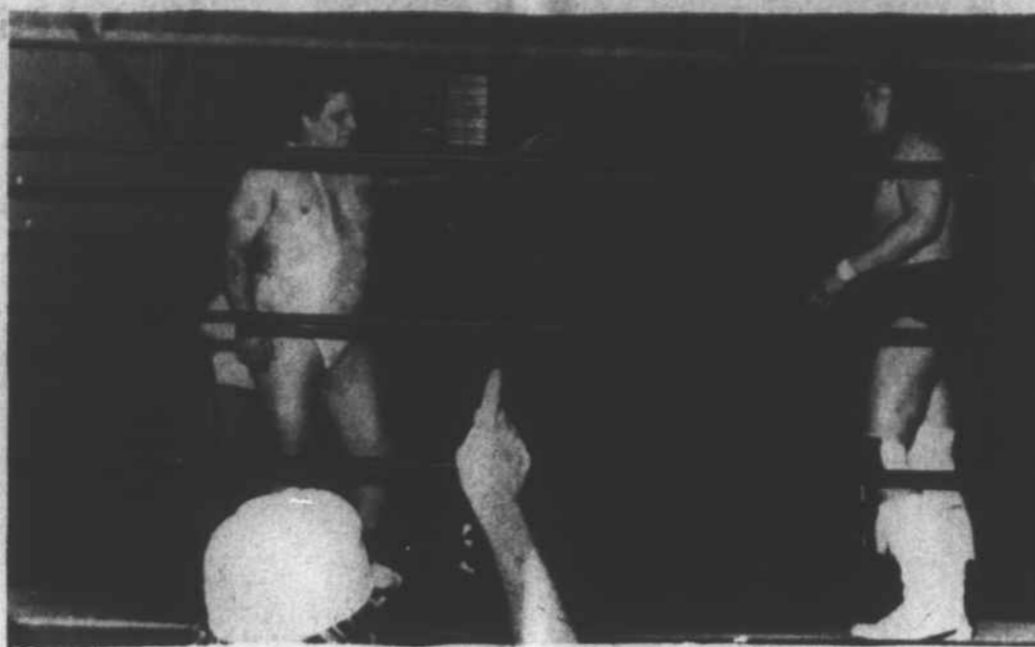

"The men's singles are closed but we do have several openings in the other categories," commented Dr. Ken Johnson, director of the tournament. "We have many fine tennis players who will be playing in this tournament and invite tennis players in the participate."

Top seeded in the tournament are Doug Eller, from Florida's Hickory Country Club and PSU graduate; Rick Kinney, former No. 1 player at UNC-Charlotte who reached the semi-finals last year; Paul Gemboys, presently No. 1 tennis player at UNC-Wilmington; and Rod Stewart, a former No. 1 player at Pembroke State and currently pro at Clover Field Tennis Club in Fayetteville.

Anyone wishing to enter in the weekend indoor tennis event should contact Coach Johnson at Pembroke State or the athletic department. Entries will be accepted on a

MUSIC WORKSHOP TO BE HELD AT PSU FEB. 5

Pembroke-- "Matrix," a jazz group featuring horns, keyboard and electronic instruments, will present a workshop at 3 p.m. and a concert at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 5, at Pembroke State University's Performing Arts Center.

Their performance here is co-sponsored by PSU's Eta Beta Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity and the university Lyceum Series. Those wishing to attend both the workshop and concert may pay $5, which covers both. Admission to the concert only is $2. PSU students with I.D. cards will be admitted to both events free of charge.

"Matrix" has recorded albums for both RCA and Warner Brothers--and its record, "Wizard," recorded in Shade Tree Studios in Wisconsin, is positive proof, say critics, that a major new force is this group in contemporary music.

First big hit for "Matrix" came in 1976 at the Monterey Jazz Festival where, according to the festival organizer, it received "the most thunderous ovation of any group in the history of the festival."

Members of "Matrix" are: Larry Darling--trumpet, flugel horn, moog synthesizer, percussion and vocals; Kurt Dietrich--trombone, oberheim synthesizer and vocals; Mike Hale--trumpet, flugelhorn, con gas, percussion and vocals; John Harmon--acoustic piano, electric piano, oberheim synthesizer and percussion; John Kirkberger--tenor sax, soprano sax, flute, alto flute and percussion; Brad McDougall--bass trombone, valve trombone, percussion and vocals; Mick Murphy--drums, percussion; Jeff Pietrangolo--trumpet, flugelhorn and percussion; and Randy Tico--bass.
