

Janie Maynor Locklear Selected as One of Five Outstanding Young Women in N.C.

Janie is pictured with sponsor of the banquet - Defender Life Insurance Co. Janie Maynor Locklear and husband Nickie Locklear Janie Maynor Locklear has been selected as one of the five Outstanding Young Women in North Carolina. She was one of 23 nominees throughout the state. Each nominee must be nominated by a Jaycette Chapter. Ms. Locklear was nominated by the Pembroke Jaycettes. She was chosen for the honor because of her outstanding contributions to her community. She is the only woman who serves as a project director for Pembroke's Lumbee Regional Development Association. She directs the Lumbee Indian Education Project. She was also the only American Indian woman to be recognized by the state and the 1st nominee of Pembroke Jaycettes. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Maynor, the wife of Nickie Locklear, and the mother of Elizabeth Joy and Nick Aaron.

The Award was presented to Ms. Locklear at the conclusion of a week of activities by the Pembroke Jaycettes in observance of Jaycette week Feb. 11-18.

The Jaycettes and their families attended Sandy Plains Methodist Church on Sunday. After worship service, they enjoyed lunch together.

On Monday night the Jaycettes traveled to Laurinburg to visit with the Laurinburg Jaycettes. They were observing Open House as was other Jaycette chapters throughout the state.

On Wednesday the Jaycettes visited with the Pembroke Senior Citizens and presented each lady with Valentine candy.

Thursday night they visited the Cancer Institute and visited with the patients and presented the men with after shave lotion and the ladies with body lotion.

The Jaycette Awards weekend was held in Greensboro on Feb. 16-18, at the Four Seasons Holiday Inn. The Awards Banquet was held on Sat. Night, Feb. 17. Attending the banquet and observing Ms. Locklear receive her honor were several Pembroke Jaycettes and Jaycettes. They were: Renford Scott; Dora

Evangelism Workshop Planned

The Reverend James H. Miller, Director of the North Carolina Council on Ministries, Raleigh, N.C. will be the keynote speaker in launching a two evening visitation Evangelism Workshop, Sunday, March 4, 6:30 p.m.-9:00 p.m. through Monday, March 5, 7:00 p.m.-9:30 p.m., at the Sandy Plains United Methodist Church.

The Workshop will be an event planned to assist local churches in developing a program of evangelism and in sharing skills on how to make visits.

Local church Work Area Committee, Pastors, and Church School Teachers are invited to attend. Other leaders participating in the workshop, are the following Ministers: the Reverend Ray Sparrow, First Church-Calvary, the Reverend Robert Mangum, Prospect, and the Reverend Simeon F. Cummings, Sandy Plains Branch Street United Methodist Churches.

Coordinating the workshop on Visitation Evangelism is the Reverend Dufrene Cummings, Pastor of the Ashpole-Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church.

Variety Show

The Pembroke Senior High School Drama Club will present the Second Annual Variety Show Thursday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. General admission will be $1.50 and students with IDs will pay $1.00.

A LETTER TO GOSPEL MUSIC LOVERS

Dear Gospel Music Lovers:

We are glad to announce again that our first Saturday Night gospel sing is coming up on March 3rd to be held once again at Deep Branch School. Located between Pembroke and Lumberton, on the Old River Road. You are cordially invited to come and share God's blessing with us. There is no admission charge, and you don't have to be dressed fancy. We are just simple folks who love the Lord and love to witness in His name and share His blessings with others.

Our featured singers for this Saturday Night will be the Shannoneers from Shannon, and the Carter Sisters from Red Springs, and we are hoping that the Chandler Family of Rowland will be with us, and others will be singing.

We are happy to report that the Sounds of Victory from Hickory, N.C. will be appearing as the April 7th Saturday Night Gospel Singing. Mr. Ronnie L. Crump (Manager of Sounds of Victory) and group will bless your hearts. We are pleased to announce that on May 19th the Sounds of Victory, the Singing Echoes of Cleveland, Tennessee and Easter Brothers of Mt. Airy, N.C. will be having a song concert at the Brookford Community Auditorium located on Highway 127, South of Hickory, and you are invited to attend this singing. Each of you are invited to attend this gospel singing.

We have a prayer request for a young child, Master Reginal Mitchell, (son of Mrs. Hattie Mitchell). Master Mitchell has a Kidney failure and is a patient in the Chapel Hill Area Hospital. This family desires and requests the prayers of every Christian.

Master Maurice Lowery, one of our singers of the First Saturday Night Sing, was scheduled to sing in Washington, D.C. on Friday 16th of February. We are thankful to have such talent as this.

We encourage all Christians that love Gospel Singing to support our work of the Southeastern Gospel Singing Association and promote Gospel Sing. As the word of God teaches us together we stand divided we fall. Regardless of what Denomination we are it's time that we unite together. God has no color or race barrier and neither do we. The one that's Faithful till the end shall receive a reward.

Faithfully Yours
Rev. Grover Oxendine

P.S. Any Gospel Singing Group that wishes to unite with the Southeastern Gospel Singing Association please write us and give us your address and telephone number, and let us call you. Regardless of race or denomination we are interested in your group.

California Cuties Coming To PSHS

If you're bald-headed or slightly overweight basketball player, then watch out. That is, if you're playing against the California Cuties.

The Cuties, a team of outstanding men players attired in ladies' clothes, make every game a "Sadie Hawkins Day" when it comes to the opposition.

"We always get our man," laughs founder-owner Trino Palacios in explaining the Cutie tactic of picking out popular local players as fall guys.

The Cuties come to Pembroke on Friday, March 2, to take on the Pembroke Senior High teachers. Game time is 7:30 at Pembroke Senior High Gym. Proceeds will go to the sponsoring athletic dept.

Some of the Cuties' antics are strictly off the cuff, while others are well-rehearsed routines guaranteed to make the crowd laugh and cheer.

"We're always on the look out for new ways to entertain the fans," says Palacios. "Sometimes a player will ad lib a stunt which goes over big. Then we'll add it to our permanent list of routines."

The Cuties, whose roster includes a mischievous 38-inch midget by the name of "Little Susie" are made up of former high school and college players blessed with enough talent to win nine out of every 10 games.

"But the final score isn't all that counts," Palacios points out. "As long as the fans are happy, then we're happy."
