

Pembroke High Coaches Speak at Kiwanis Meeting

Ward, P.H.S. Football Coach; Ken Johnson, Program Chairman.

Pembroke Kiwanis Club welcomed Ronnie Chavis, Pembroke High School Baseball Coach, and Ralph Ward, Pembroke High School Football Coach, at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Club at the Town and Country Restaurant. Ken Johnson, program chairman for the meeting introduced the coaches who are P.S.U. graduates and were students in his classes.

Coach Chavis thanked Kiwanis for the uniforms they provided and spoke about the goals set forth for the players. They must know how to win and how to lose; they must never give up or quit; they must always remember they are representing their school and community. Sports are important in the educational picture since they help to keep many students in school and encourage them to strive for good grades in their academic studies. Pembroke High School Baseball teams have had at least one player receive a scholarship each year. Coaches are in that profession for two reasons—they love the sport and they love to work with young players. Coach Chavis says you can succeed in your own home town and he is most grateful to the community for its support and his success.

Coach Ward, P.H.S. Football Coach, also stressed the importance of sports in the education process. This past season Pembroke won 6 football games, the most in a long time. In coaching, the emphasis is on keeping it simple and trying not to over-coach. The season opened with 78 students trying out for positions on the team. After the first cut, 40 players remained and by the time of the first game 33 players had made the team. Safety in football is most important and all precautions are taken. What do you look for in a player? No. 1, is a good attitude. It will help you win over time. No. 2, is the ability to think under stress. No. 3, is quickness and agility and, and No. 4 is size. The first two weeks of the Season is devoted to conditioning. Much time is also spent on fundamentals and trying to instill self-motivation. Improvement comes each year and self-confidence is increased. The team goal this past season was: 1--Win more games and 2--make the playoffs. This they did, losing only to West Brunswick 20-19. The fans really supported the team throughout the season and the players really deserved the credit for the success of the team.

Club President John L. Carter, presided at the meeting and the invocation was given by Jim Paul. Singing was conducted by Lankford Godwin and Ira Pate Lowry was pianist. Garth Locklear announced that Ray Strickland has been elected President of the Robeson County Law Enforcement Association. On Feb. 2nd, Theodore Maynor will have Garry Henry as guest speaker.

EVERGREEN CHURCH NEWS by Mrs. Leacle Brooks

Sunday School began at 9:30 a.m. The lesson studied was entitled "Faithful in Service," taken from Acts 18:1-17. We are still studying about the great work Paul did. Preaching the word.

A love offering was taken for Sister Nancy Ann Oxendine. Pray for her. She is the oldest member of the church. Although she's old, she comes to church when she's able.

Those paying their birthday offering to the church were Edith Locklear, Annette Jacobs and Sister Ellis Baker.

Pray for the sick ones. Mrs. Jackie Wilkins in Southeastern General Hospital. Still remember my sister, Lurinia.

There are so many sick in our family: Relford, Catherine and Lucratie too. So many more families have sickness. Let's keep each on our prayer list.

There was no preaching Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday which is our regular preaching. Your are invited. The pastor, Rev. Joseph Lee Locklear, along with the members, gives you a special welcome at any time to worship with us.

Wednesday night prayer service was carried out by Brother Wade Oxendine.

The fifth Sunday night is regular singing night for 1982. Beginning around 7 p.m. All singers are invited to attend and take part.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

It was once said by Mrs. Rosalyn Carter, "I want to see a caring society." I too agree. It is so needful to have some one to care. People today need to help one another. There is a great need, all around us. Someone feels as though their lives are not worth while any more.

Wouldn't you like to be remembered as one who did what you could to make a difference in the minds of people in a standing like this? Even years after you are gone, live in a way that someone could say: "One thing I know, that was a person who cared about people."

Dear reader, let's look around us. Someone needs each of us in some way. A phone call, a visit, food, money, or just a smile. All of this and much more is needed. There are people who don't have heat-who don't have food, just not as lucky as you and me. What are we doing about it?

If you think you are in need, just visit around. There is someone else who is in much more need. Yes, I do go along with Mrs. Carter. We do need a society who cares.

Let's pray for guidance. Jesus will teach us who really needs our help. I pray may God help me to help someone who is in desperate need. God loves those who care.

Please pray for us at Ever Green.

Carl Woodring-- Osage Indian Artist

From mid-January to mid-February, Schiele Museum is proud to host the art work of Carl Woodring, a native American. His early years were spent in Pawhuska, Oklahoma and Philbrook Indian Art Shows. His works are in several private and public collections including Vincent Price, Haile Selassie (Emperor of Ethiopia), Dewey Bartlett, Dr. Fredrick Dockstader, Dr. Oscar Jacobson, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, Gilcrease Museum, Museum of the American Indians, Museum of New Mexico and Philbrook Art Center.

He has won five grand awards at shows, in addition to over 100 major awards. He has won prizes at Sheridan, Scottsdale, Anadarka, Gallup, and Philbrook Indian Art Shows. His works are in several private and public collections including Vincent Price, Haile Selassie (Emperor of Ethiopia), Dewey Bartlett, Dr. Fredrick Dockstader, Dr. Oscar Jacobson, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, Gilcrease Museum, Museum of the American Indians, Museum of New Mexico and Philbrook Art Center.

His primary style is traditional Indian Art--flat, two-dimensional, colorful--and reflects the cultural heritage of the American Indians. As a painter and sculptor, he received more awards in a single year than any artist ever to enter Philbrook Art Center Artists Annual Exhibition. He has served as President of the Tulsa Pow Wow Club and as arts and crafts director for the American Indian Exposition of Anadarka, Oklahoma. He has participated in several art benefit auction shows.

The lifestyles, legends, and symbols of the American Indian are well served by the brush and hand of Carl Woodring. The Schiele Museum of Natural History is pleased to welcome him as our gallery guest artist. Carl now resides in Charlotte, NC and is active in the Native American Society at the Schiele Museum.

The First Union Retirement Account. No family should be without it.

Why You Should Open Your IRA At First Union.

If you have earned income, a First Union Retirement Account is one of the best investments you can make. Our 18-month variable-rate Retirement Account takes the guesswork out of maximizing your investment at First Union. Your interest rate will be adjusted monthly and will be 1/2% over the 6-month Treasury Bill rate* or the current First Union 30-month CD offering rate -- whichever is higher during the term. For as little as $100, you'll automatically get the higher of two money market interest rates every month. So you know your investment will be keeping pace with current economic conditions. First Union also offers $500-minimum, fixed rate IRAs. We'll help you choose which IRA is best for you.
