The Prospect Parent Teachers Organization observed their annual Teacher Appreciation Day on May 3.

The Teacher Appreciation Day Committee composed of Diane Goins, Patsy Lowry, Carolyn Deese, Connee Brayboy and Marty Locklear.

The parents began the day by visiting the school and pinning corsages and bouquets on every teacher, aide and employee in the school. There are 88 persons employed at Prospect School. The flowers were prepared by Rose Carter of Carter's Flowers in Pembroke.

During the evening meeting of the PTO, the teachers were entertained by Royce Bullard, a student, who presented her rendition in song of "what the teachers mean to us."

Each teacher, the principal and the assistant principal and guidance counselor were presented certificates of appreciation by the parents. William C. Chavis, assistant principal, expressed the thoughts of the teachers. He said, "Thank you for making our day... If it had been raining, you would have caused the sun to shine."

Officers for the 1982-83 school year were elected. They are: Diane Goins, president; Jennings Bullard, vice president; Connee Brayboy, secretary; and Patsy Lowry, treasurer. Following the business session, refreshments were served.
