LAP READING PROGRAM PRODUCES GREAT DIVIDENDS

WISE MOVE PROPER INSULATION IS AN ASSET TO YOUR COMFORT AND YOUR BANKBOOK, UP TO MALF OF
THE HEATING AND COOLING YOU PAY FOR CAN BE LOST IN

Brandi is five years old and has acquired quite a reading vocabulary for a young lady and retired school teacher, felt a longing for the rewards

Never leave a key under the doormat or hidden anywhere

Brandi Barton, daughter of she received in working with Mr. & Mrs. Bruce Barton of youth in the classroom. Pembroke, N.C. enjoys a visit Seeing a young child achieve, with Mrs. Margaret Sampson see their eyes light up when for a lap reading session. learning new words or as one child said, "to learn what the book says," affords one a pleasure words cannot ex-

Mrs. Margaret Sampson, a Mrs. Sampson has brought Pembroke E.H.C. Member .numerous books and reading Mrs. Sampson has brought aids that make a visit to her house a treat for the little fellows in her community.

Knowing the attention span of most small children, Mrs. Sampson uses coloring para-phernalia and picture books to captivate her subjects.

Many of the Pembroke Homemakers are devoting time on a regular basis to work with community children. Two members are working with slow readers and getting very positive results. All club members agree that the time spent with these Brandi Barton enjoys lap- reading session with Mrs. Margaret Sampson.

Pembroke BPW Club contributes to Reba Lowry Scholarship Fund

Mrs. Deanna Lowry, Past President of the Pembroke Business and Professional Women's Club presented Mr. Ira P. Lowry with a check for $100.00 as a contribution to the Reba Lowry Scholarship Fund. The scholarship fund is set up at PSU for students majoring in foreign languages and is in memory of Mrs. Lowry. She served as professor of foreign langu PSU from 1936-1975. She was a charter member of the Pembroke Business and Professional Women's Club and served as the club's president. She was voted the Club Women of the Year.

The $100.00 was raised through profits made on the Club's Annual Charity Ball. [Connee Brayboy photo]

Cont'd from Page 1 $100,000 MADE AVAILABLE FOR INDIAN SCHOLARSHIPS

'These scholarships will offer additional opportunity for higher education and will enhance the further cultural and economic contributions of North Carolina Indians."

available statistics, 2 out of 5 in the college transfer pro-Indian families in North Carolina are living at or below the poverty level. A recent study by the Indian Education Committee of the Commission of Indian Affairs reported that the probability that an Indian college freshman will graduate is less than his non-Indian counterpart. The study also found that a greater percentage of Indians graduate from the community college system than nonwhites and most Indian students elect to study agriculture, home economics, trade and industry, and remedial studies. A smaller percentage According to the latest of Indian students is enrolled

In 1980, 958 Indians were enrolled in the university system. Some 58.1 percent of that number was enrolled at Pembroke State University, which was followed by UNC-

Chapel Hill with 12.2 percent. The Indian scholarship bill was introduced in the General Assembly by Rep. David R. Parnell of Robeson County and was ratified June 23.

NEW HARPER'S FERRY CEMETARY NOW AVAILABLE

Pembroke businessman, an-nounces the opening of the new Harper's Ferry Cemetary on the Red Banks Road.

either individual or family. 521-4771 in Pembroke after 6 p.m. For further information. He is also offering discounts

