A TRIP TO NEW YORK RAISES $17,800 FOR PSU Dr. Richard Pisane, beginning his second year as director of institutional advancement at Pembroke State University, recently flew to New York on a fund-raising endeavor and reports very fruitful results.

He is receiving $7,000 from the William Randolph Hearst Foundation plus two checks of $5,400 each from the Culpepper Foundation.

expanding its efforts outside magazines and newspapers. market.

the Tar Heel state in raising funds from private foundations and believes this New York trip was a good begin-

He will give a full report Thursday afternoon when the PSU foundation and Endowment Boards meet at the University.

PSU TO OFFER COMPUTER COURSES THIS

The age of computers is upon us as is evident as one According to Dr. Pisano, reads articles about the ex- $1,000-and in one case for Pembroke State University is ploding computer field in only $100--have reached the Everyone, from children up. are interested in learning more about computers.

In other words, if one doesn't know about computers today, he is obsolete.

"We are watching the real birth of the home computer," said Egil Juliussen of Future Computing Inc., a market research firm in Richardson,

The New York Times News Service reports that computers selling from $300 to savings vou Edi

Dr. Steve Pax, who teaches the use of the computers at Pembroke State University, says: "We have no difficulty in filling our classes." He says PSU has four terminals in its Computer Center which are used constantly. This fall PSU will offer three courses in computers. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 a.m. Dr. Pax will teach Computer Science 100, "Introduction to Computer Science." He will instruct this same course on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8

Dr. Jose D'Arruda will instruct Physics 448, "Introduction to Micro Computers," on Mondays and Wednesdays at 1 p.m.

The Computer Science 100 Course will also be taught from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday nights by Dr. Joe Goldston. BONNIE DEUTSCH TO

RECEIVE DOCTORATE

IN AUGUST

PSU, will receive her doctor- Greensboro.

3 BO'S

ate in Art Education from Pennsylvannia State University on August 28.

She received her M. Ed om that institution in 1976 and her B. F. A. from Pratt Institute in 1970.

Dr. Deutsch is a native of Easton, Pa. She is a member of the National Art Education Association and the College Art Association of America. She received a Graduate School Fellowship from Pennsylvannia State University in 1980-81.

ANTHONY LOCKLEAR GOING TO UNC-GREENSBORO

Anthony Locklear, who has served as an admissions counselor at Pembroke State University for four years, has accepted a position as admissions counselor at UNC-GREENSBORO effective July 22. In December he will marry Felicia Maynor who is a talent search counselor for the N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs. She is the daughter of Mr. & Bonnie Deutsch, instruc- Mrs. Ken Maynor of Pemtor in the Art Department at broke. Felicia resides in Anthony is a graduate of Prospect High School and ske State University.

DR. WILLIAM FRITZ CONDUCTS JAZZ CAMP IN

Dr. William Fritz of the PSU Music Department taught at a jazz camp at Fontbonne College in St. Louis, Mo., in June with approximately 200 music stuents attending. He was the only instructor brought in from out of state. Dr. Fritz taught jazz arranging and jazz pedagogy.

CLIFTON OXENDINE RECEIVES "HENRY BERRY LOWRIE" AWARD

Clifton Oxendine, professor emeritus of Pembroke State University who is now very vital at 82, was honored during last weekend's Lumbee Indian Homecoming with the "Henry Berry Lowrie Award" for his great contributions to the Lumbee Indian

A stoic figure, a patriarch of his people, Clifton was a member of the first class of students who graduated from Old Main in 1924. He went on to serve as dean of what was then Pembroke State College for 18 years (1939-57) and then PSU professor of history and sociology for 13 years.

In receiving the award, Mr. Clifton demonstrated he has lost none of his charm and Making the presentation to him was Dr. Vermon Ray Thompson, who is head of testing and research for Robeson County Schools.

PIANO LESSONS TO BE TAUGHT AT PEMBROKE STATE JULY 12-23

Beginning piano lessons will be offered at PSU Monday through Friday, July 12-23, from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. These will be for students in grades 3-12 and for interested area adults. Cost is $50 per student. Instructing will be Dr. Lyn Michiletti of the PSU Music Department.

RAT SCARBOROUGH WAS GOOD FRIEND OF PSU

Ray Scarborough, the

friend of PSU. He was a key man in the signing of Foreste Oxendine to a contract with the Milwaukee Brewers. He had visited the PSU campus many times-even before PS hired his son-in-law, Billy Lee, as head basketball coach in 1978. The University's sympathies go out to Scar-borough's daughter, Shirley, and all of the Scarborough

By the way, the Brewers representative at the funeral told us Forace hit a home run in his first time at bat as a professional.

BASKETBALL CAMPS GET UNDERWAY SUNDAY

The first of two Pembroke State basketball camps begin Sunday and continues through July 16. It is a junior high camp for grades 5-9. The following week, July 18-23, a senior high camp will be held for grades 10-12.

Cost of either camp is $60 for day students and $110 for boarding students.

at Cherokee Chapel Methodist Church began Sunday Chavis, John, of Wakulla, by som of Pembroke, N.C.

Following the reception of John into the church, the sacrament of baptism was administered to the children of the following parents, which accompanied them during the ritual: Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Oxendine, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Locklear, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Eveleigh and Mrs. Genette Brewer Lock-

At the close of the ritual, Rev. Ransom brought the message, using for his subject "How To Serve The Lord." At the close of the message, Rev. Ransom announced the closing song with Rev. Steve Locklear of Pembroke giving the closing prayer.

Among the visitors Sunday were Rev. Steve Locklear, Mrs. Veradora Sams of Greensboro, Mrs. Darlene Jacobs and son of Pembroke. Capt. and Mrs. Ronnie Oxenline of Va. and Mr. and MRs. Stacy Locklear and family of Pembroke, Nan, Keith and Stacy Jr. Nan is presently employed for the summer in the pharmacy lept. in the newly built inspital at Cherokee, N.C. he will resume her studies in sharmacy back at UNC

Thapel Hill in September.
After enjoying the inspire nessage of Rev. Ranso Betty returned back to Pe roke to attend a surprise lelen Smith.

Those attending of the

The regular worship service er, Dr. Jessie B. Chavis, a sister, Essie C. Locklear and husband Belton and son Joe morning at 11 a.m. with the Glenn of Floral College, a conformation and reception of brother, Tommie Chavis, Jr. the son of Mr. & Mrs. Clyde of Red Springs, a niece and nephew, Miss Jan and Patrick. the pastor Rev. Julian Ran- Henry Dial of Red Springs and Phillip Smith of Red Springs.

Those of the Locklear family were her father-in-law, Thurman Locklear of Pembroke, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hazel Hunt and husband, Len and daughters, Wanda and Shereta and Amanda; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Smith and husband Rufus and daughter, Shelena; a brother in law, William Locklear and daughter, Valerie; another daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary Lois Callahan and husband, Larry and children.

Intimate friends were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Locklear, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Strickland and Mrs. Lucy B. Brooks, all of Pembroke.

Betty received many beautiful gifts and money. A warm hospitality was shown by members of the church and an excellent fellow ship was enjoyed all during the delicious meal.

Everyone wished Betty many more happy birthdays.

The hare is larger, hea

