MT. AIRY NEWS by Violet Locklear

into another age group.) So our little children began the singing along with their lead-ers. I'll tell you it was just amazing how they were sing-ing for the Glory of God. Their leaders have done a fantastic

We had a special by our quartet. a new song of theirs about "Calvary-" which was really beautiful. One of my favorite songs is "Calvary Covered it all." It explains what John 3:16 means to men. Calvary covers it all, my past with its sins, and stains, my guilt and despair, Jesus took on him there and Calvary covers it all.

The pastor delivered a wonderful message from Genesis 3:7. His subject was "Fig Leaves." Such an evi-

Sunday was Promotion dent message-ways of trying Sunday. (An advancement to cover up sin, etc. I had never heard a sermon like that before. It was really enthu-

> The pastor begins a new class Sunday night on Baptist Bellefs. He would love for all who will to take this course.

Bro. Robert Locklear and his co-workers are still on their mission every Thursday night. They are going into the homes of some shut-ins having prayer meeting with them. You will never know how much it means until you become sick yourself. I extend a lot of praise to them for the many times they have been in my home, not only for me, but for Mom also. This Thursday

The Jaycettes will be hav- we stopped at Calabash and g this Saturday night, Oct. 2 from 7 until at the Mt. Airy Jaycee Hut. I know all who attended really enjoyed it another couple spent last weekend touring the mountains; Cherokee Reservation and also went on up to Gatlinburg, Tenn. They report they had a marvelous

On Saturday, Sept. 25 the Adult Ladies Class with our teacher, Mrs. Lucy O. Thomas and some of the ladies' husbands and others from the church went on our party on the church bus to Waccamaw Pottery Complex in Myrtle Beach, SC. It was a beautiful day down there. A lot of the ladies enjoyed Christmas shopping early. Waccamaw is a large place, a lot more than just pottery. Our bus driver was Mr. Tommy Gist who ing a fund raising dinner everyone enjoyed a seafood featuring good old gospel dinner of their choice which was really delicate. Everyone seemed to think we just didn't have enough time to spend at the pottery to enjoy the trip like we should have loved to. Miss Zina Sampson, Mr. But maybe better arrange-Mike Crane Locklear and ments the next time. There were some thirty-five making the trip. Special guests were Mrs. Ester Lowery of Lumberton, Mrs. Mary Hammonds of Dillon, SC and Mrs. Adrenia Rogers. We enjoyed having them with us. Mrs. Darlene Carter, Mrs. Annie Pearl Lowery, also Mrs. Carolyn Carter enjoyed a day of shopping in Fayette-ville on Wednesday.

THE SICK LIST Miss Trudie Locklear has returned home after a long stay in McCain Hospital. Her condition is improving. Mr. Grant Maynor has returned home from the Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville. In learning of extended Care Unit. He is What seems to be a trage oing to return home this

Mrs. Lailure Locklear, a dear beloved friend to all of us is scheduled to go back intot the hospital today. May God's sings surround her. She has always been one of the leaders of our church.

Please remember these and many more in our community in your prayers.

IT SEEMS TO BE ... Tragedy in every way.

Is what it seems to be-But God has a special Unknown to you and me.

What seems to be a tragedy May be the very case Of teaching us dependence Upon his unfailing grace

What seems to be a tragedy Makes us wonder "Why?" But he offers us his comfort In inexhustible supply.

Grant's trouble my heart What seems to be a tragedy Will make us never cease

Isn't one at all-But just a way of getting An answer to his call.

PAGE 3, CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

...Locklears Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

 THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

P.O. Bex 1075 Pembreke, NC 28372 U.S. PS. #978380 Published each Thursday Established 1973

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT PEMBROKE, NC 28372

Subscription Rates:

In State

22 Years

OUT OF STATE

$12.00

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Locklean

Pembroke-Mr. and Mrs. Cur- cake, baked by Mrs. Evelyn tis Locklear were honored Cummings, was served by Sunday, Sept. 5, 1982 with a Mrs. Ernie Locklear (Vista), reception given by their chil- daughter-in-law. Punch was dren in celebration of their poured from an antique crys-50th wedding anniversary. tal cut glass punch bowl by The reception was held in the Ms. Stephanie Locklear and Pembroke Senior High School Ms. Lori Renee Locklear, dining hall.

Ms. Jennifer Kaye Locklear, James Christopher Locklear, granddaughter and Mrs. a grandson, Ms. Cornelius Peggy Locklear, daughter-in- Lowry, and Ms. Phyllis Jac-ed a corsage of yellow rose- music was rendered by the ouds and Mr. Lockelar a White Hill Free Will Singers yellow rose boutonniere.

assortment of hors d' oeurve vised by Ms. Locklear's sis-was overlaid of white and ter, Mrs. Cora G. Cox. linen and lace, graced with a The honored couple were bouquet of yellow roses and married Sept. 3, 1932 in gold candles.

Pamela Jones, Ms. Bobbie C. retired from American Na-Strickland, Mrs. Gwen Swett, tional Insurance Company. and Ms. Lisa M. Lowry, grand daughter. The three-tiered and relatives attended granddaughters. Ms. Valeria Registering the guests were Swett, a granddaughter, obs were in charge of regis-Greeting and presenting tering and displaying the gifts the guests were Rev. and and money tree. Photographs Mrs. James Bruce Swett, were taken by Mr. Ronnie followed by Mr. and Mrs. Chavis. Ernie Locklear, the Curtis Locklear, their children oldest son, was master of Annette L. Swett, Ernie S. ceremonies. He presented Locklear, Maria Lowry, Mar- each child and their family. shall M. Locklear, Patricia He expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Locklear and Stanford Lock- Curtis Locklear how much the children appreciated them. A Mrs. Locklear was present- program of special gospel and a solo by Mr. Monford The refreshment table of an Dial. Decorations were super-two brass candlesticks with Dillon, South Carolina. Mrs. Locklear is the former Delphia Serving the hors d'oeurve Deese of the White Hill were Ms. Paulette Deese, Ms. community. Mr. Locklear is Approximately 150 friends

Clyde Jones and the Country Steelers will be appearing at Tuscarora Drowning Creek Reservation Friday and Saturday near ward Clark's Shopping Center

"...Is What makes a Good Volunteer Program"

Shown above left to right

SAVE GREENBAX STAMPS FROM