

Pembroke State University

BY GENE WARREN

BIG MUSIC WEEK COMING UP AT PSU

Students and professors are gone from the PSU campus this Thursday and Friday because of the mid-semester break, but when they return next week a variety of events will be on tap.

Music will head the agenda with two attractions back-to-back.

On Thursday, Oct. 28, the PSU Band plus the "Singers and Swingers" will put on a special concert at the Performing Arts Center, beginning at 8 p.m.

Then on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29-30, the third annual Southeastern Choral Festival is scheduled with Dr. John Haberlen of Georgia State University as clinician.

The Oct. 29 format will involve students' participation, while the Oct. 30 schedule will be devoted to teachers.

Dr. Lynn Micheletti, who is directing the festival, says that one hour of instructional credit will again be available for two days of attendance at the festival.

Dr. Haberlen has appeared in more than 20 states as a clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor of festival choruses. He is now president-elect of the Georgia Chapter of the American Choral Directors Assn.

GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL INFORMATION DAY

PSU's Annual Graduate and Professional School Information Day should be another important event on campus Wednesday, Oct. 27. Starting at 9 a.m. in the PSU Student Center, it will continue until 3 p.m. Representatives from various universities will be on campus to discuss with Jr. and Sr. students their graduate programs in a variety of disciplines.

FRIENDS OF LIBRARY TO MEET THURSDAY OCTOBER 28

The friends of PSU's Mary Livermore Library will hold a meeting Thursday, Oct. 28, 1982 at 7:30 p.m. in room 223 of the library. As a Friend of the library, these people will help in providing informational, cultural and educational assistance in this area.

The library's clients include everyone from businessmen, students, University faculty and area teachers to those who would like to read an exciting novel. The Mary Livermore Library cooperates closely with area libraries and librarians. Dr. Robert Herach is PSU's Director of Library Services.

ANNUAL GIVING CAMPAIGN MEETING POSTPONED A WEEK

This Thursday's scheduled meeting of the Annual Giving Campaign has been postponed to Thursday, Oct. 28, announced Ira Pate Lowry, co-director of the campaign. One of the factors is that PSU is on mid-semester break.

However, the 30 persons selling tickets can mail in checks to the PSU Office of Institutional Advancement. Latest report on the campaign is that $31,164 has already been raised toward the yearly goal of $100,000.

MIKE SCHAEFFER TO BE CHANCELLOR'S RADIO GUEST

Mike Schaeffer, soccer coach of Pembroke State, will be the radio guest of Chancellor Paul Givens on his weekly program, "From the Chancellor's Office," to be aired at 10:45 a.m. Sunday. Schaeffer has done a good job in building the soccer program at the University. This program is on WAGR in Lumberton.

CHURCHES PROVIDE LUNCHES AT BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Wednesday lunches for PSU students who attend programs at the PSU Baptist Student Union are continuing this year with different churches providing the food. On the second Wednesday of the month, First Baptist Church of Lumberton supplies the lunch-and last week a huge crowd attended.

Frances Arnette of First Baptist and her WMU circle were the hosts on that occasion with Connie Huntley being the church's Mission Action chairman. The students are most appreciative.

DR. STEPHENSON SPEAKS AT UNC-W PHI ETA SIGMA INDUCTION

Dr. Shelby Stephenson of PSU's Communicative Arts Department, who is editor of "Pembroke Magazine", was the speaker at the recent induction of 26 sophomores into the Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society at UNC-Wilmington. His topic was "Meanings of Childhood-You Must Remember Your Roots."

JIM VALVANO: HIGHLY SOUGHT AFTER CLINICIAN

Jim Valvano, the N.C. State basketball coach who will be the featured speaker at PSU Nov. 9 for its $50-a-plate fund raising dinner, had an opportunity to conduct clinics during the past summer in Greece, Italy, Venezuela and China-but decided to stay home and work. Instead he went to places like Louisville, Missouri and West Virginia.

Everyone we've talked with says he is a great speaker. So if you haven't purchased your ticket to that event, be sure to do so soon. It is only a couple of weeks away.

PSU students are enjoying this new gazebo, recently completed and a gift from the PSU Class of 1982. The materials for the project cost $600, said PSU engineer Billy Dees who designed the building. It was constructed by the PSU maintenance department and is located behind Old Main. The idea for the gazebo was that of former PSU student Mazer Tyson of Wadesboro.

Dr. John Haberlen...to lead PSU's Southeastern Choral Festival Oct. 29-30.

PSU JOINS ROBESON ON PARADE

A gala attraction is scheduled Friday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m. at PSU's Performing Arts Center when "Strike at the Wind" presents Robeson on Parade. It will feature Franci Adler, Miss PSU, plus Cynthia Gentry, a former Miss PSU. Others in the pageant will be Rhonda Flanagan, Miss Lumbee, plus Robert Bryant, Maurice Lowery, LRDA's Dancers and Singers, Carnell Locklear, Gina Maynor, Ray Locklear, Lucy Locklear, Carrie Dial and Carla Earls.

Advance tickets are $3. Tickets at the door are $4 for adults and $2 for students.

ART EXHIBIT BEGINS MONDAY

Two artists from St. Andrews Presbyterian College will have a 30-day art exhibit Monday, Oct. 25 thru Nov. 23, at the Art Gallery in PSU's Locklear Hall. The graphics and paintings show is by James Linchan of Gibson and Andy Jones of Fayetteville.

The PSU Art Department, headed by Paul Van Zandt, will have a large number of exhibits at Locklear Hall throughout the year-and this column will keep you informed of them.

COURTHOUSE SQUARES

THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

Ms. Dial to take part in Robeson on Parade

Carrie M. Dial

Pembroke-Carnell Locklear, General Manager of Strike at the Wind, along with Barbara Barton and Melvin Kennedy are organizing a Robeson on Parade Concert to be staged at PSU's Performing Arts Center Nov. 5, 1982 at 8 p.m.

Many Robeson County citizens will be donating their time to help Strike at the Wind raise funds to insure the continuation of the local outdoor drama.

Some of the participants will be LRDA's Dancer and Singers, Miss Lumbee Rhonda Flanagan, Miss PSU Cynthia Gentry, Robert Bryant, Maurice Lowry, Carla Earls and Carrie M. Dial.

Everyone is encouraged to come and support the arts.

Mrs. Carrie M. Dial, a member of Prospect United Methodist Church and retired school teacher will be one of the participants. Mrs. Dial will do a special reading. Carnell Locklear stated that "We are very excited about having a cross section of all people helping us with the program. We are very thankful to those who will participate."

For more information call 919-521-3112.

Couple Honored on 40th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chavis

WAKULLA - Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chavis were honored recently at a dinner given by their children at Cherokee Chapel Fellowship Hall. The occasion was the 40th wedding anniversary of the couple.

Greeting guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Callahan of Washington, D.C. Vicki Ransom of Carboro presided at the guest register.

Mrs. Chavis was presented a corsage of red roses and Mr. Chavis a rose boutonniere.

The receiving line was composed of the honorees and their eight children, Carl, Clyde, Donald, Guy, Dennis, James, Cathy Smith and Betty Jean Chavis.

A framed invitation and an arrangement of red roses graced a table overlaid with a ruby-colored cloth overlaid with white lace.

Punch and the three-tiered anniversary cake were served from an identical table. Pouring punch were Mrs. Annie M. Chavis, daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Joyce Oxendine.

Guests served themselves from a buffet table. Assisting here were a son-in-law, Michael Smith, Cathy Chavis and Debbie Chavis, daughters-in-law.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Lois Chavis and Mary Chavis, daughters-in-law.

Conrad Oxendine served as master of ceremonies and the Rev. Julian Ransom, the couple's pastor, gave remarks about the couple. Music for the occasion was by Ms. Judy Jacobs, soloist, and Rudy Locklear. Spencer Locklear, Ms. Annie M. Chavis.

Goodbyes were said by Ms. Jessie B. Chavis and the Rev. Steve Locklear. Around 250 attended the celebration. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. John J. Bender of Red Springs, Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Smith, Jr.

NOTE OF THANKS

We, the family of Vardell Jacobs, express words of gratitude to you, our friends and loved-ones for all your deeds of kindness and love rendered to us during the time of our bereavement.

The Family

The Water Boatman, an aquatic insect, has long, flat hind legs that serve as oars.

"The busiest men have the most leisure." English proverb

WE WORK FOR YOU!

"We Have The Insurance to fit Your Particular Need."

If You Need Insurance of Any Kind, See...

PEMBROKE Dial INSURANCE AGENCY

Dr. Harold Herring, Director Fairmont Optometric Clinic announces an increase in office hours at Pembroke Eye Clinic College Plaza (across from P.S.U.) Telephone 521-9144

Dr. John Adams, Ophthalmologist

Mrs. Helen Lowry, Receptionist-Secretary

ED JOHNSON, WHAT WILL YOU DO FOR INDIAN PEOPLE AS OUR CONGRESSMAN?

ANSWER:

1. Hire a full time Lumbee Indian on my Washington staff to directly serve the special needs of our Lumbee People.
2. To work with the U.S. Government, Native American Administrator David Lester, LRDA, and our people to bring better jobs to our area.

Let's Send a Robesonian to Washington to Represent Us. He Will Work to Bring Us Jobs.

-VOTE-

ED JOHNSON U.S. CONGRESS