Jeff Lucas Wins Internship

Jeff Lucas, a Lumbee Indian and a sophomore in business management at Brigham Young University, is the only Indian among 120 students from 60 universities across the United States serving a summer internship with the Kemper Insurance Co.
Lucas is being paid a salary while working in the auditing department of the company's Atlanta district office. The internship will also give him a variety of experiences in business practices in the company, which sells home, life and auto insurance.
During BYU's winter semester, he was elected 1982-83 president of the Tribe of Many Feathers, an organization which sponsors a variety of activities for the nearly 500 Indian students attending the university.
Lucas, 21, is the son of James and Geneva Lucas of Pembroke, N.C., about 350 miles from Atlanta.
As a freshman at BYU, he won the Outstanding Indian Freshman Scholarship Award for having the highest grade point average. He also won one of four leadership awards presented to Indian students. His twin sisters-Sandra and Sarah-both graduated from BYU and are currently working on their master's degrees there.
Lucas served a mission to Adelaide, Australia, for the LDS Church.

Guaranteed Owner Financing on Balance for 5 years at 10% Simple Interest.

REASON FOR SELLING: Mr. Roger W. Neal, Fairmont, N.C., Owner of these two parcels has retired and has no further need for these properties. Seldom do properties of this nature become available for sale, especially at Auction where the buyer sets the price.
We urge early inspection. Carefully examine the offering and see the potential. Sale to be held on site Rain or Shine. Our Field office and Representatives will be at the Subdivision Friday, November 5th with maps and to answer any questions.
