The RTC Student Government officers attended a three-day convention Oct. 28-30, 1982 in Charlotte sponsored by the North Carolina Comprehensive Community College Student Government Association. The convention agenda included seminars discussing leadership qualities, fundraising ideas and other SGA topics. The 1982-83 SGA officers are: Rick Jones-President, Randy Lewis-Vice President, Linda Maynor-Secretary, Cathy Rivenbark-Treasurer, Kathy Baxley-Parliamentarian and Gwendolyn Cooley-Hearing Board Representative.

The SGA has scheduled a Student Christmas Dance to be held December 4, 1982 at the Lumberton Recreation Department from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

The Greensboro Police will be recruiting on campus November 2, 1982.

The next RTC alumni meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 28, 1982 at 7:00 p.m. in the campus library.

Robeson Tech's next six-week Career Development course will begin Monday, November 1, 1982. This class is geared to help the unemployed prepare for and obtain a job. All interested persons should call 738-7101, extension 181.

RTC secretaries and business faculty members attended a PDI (Professional Development Institute) Conference October 21, 1982 sponsored by the State Department of Community Colleges. The conference presented practical tips for improvement within their jobs.

Mrs. Ben Hardin

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Locklear of Lumberton was the setting of the double-ring ceremony which joined Ms. Deborah Ellen Greene and Dr. Ben Hardin in marriage on Saturday, October 16, 1982 at 3:00 in the afternoon. The officiating minister was the Rev. Christopher L. Hunt.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia W. Greene of Chadbourn, NC and Billy L. Greene of Lumberton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bazie Hardin of Pembroke.

A program of nuptial music was provided by the String Quartet composed of Mr. Ken Ellington, Mrs. Susan Ellington, Ms. Sharon L. Faucett and Lilly Lyles, all of Fayetteville.

The bride descended the circular staircase unescorted. She wore a gown of Ivory. The fabric of the gown was of Brussels net ornamented in schiffli lace over ecru satin.

The entire gown was made of schiffli lace. The bodice was fitted with bib-effect; high ruffled collar. The sleeves were designed with Leg-o-mutton fitted sleeve, ruffles at wrist. The shirt was a sophisticated gathered tealength with a designer border. A satin sash was worn at the waist. Her headpiece was a circular flower wreath halo.

The bride carried a cascade of Lily of the Valley, white roses and pink roses and Enchantment lilies.

Miss Kristi Yvette Greene, sister of the bride was Maid of Honor. She wore a Mauve two-piece taffeta gown with stand up ruffled neckline to waist, with surplice bodies. The sleeves were puffed at shoulder and featured a narrow waist. The gown was designed with a purlum at the waistline and featured a slightly gathered floor length skirt. The Maid of Honor's flowers were a nosegay of mixed silk flowers in soft colonial shades.

Honorary attendants were Mrs. Almon Hall of St. Pauls and Miss Tammy Cooper of Lumberton, friends of both the bride and groom.

Ertle Knox Chavis, lifetime friend and classmate of the groom, served as Best Man.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of West Columbus High School, Cerro Gordo, NC and a 1976 graduate of Southeastern Community College-Nursing School Program. She is employed by Dr. Ben Hardin, M.D. as Office Manager and Office Nurse.

The groom is a graduate of Pembroke High School, Pembroke State University, and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine. He is in private practice of Family Medicine located at 206 W. 28th Street, Lumberton, NC.

Following the wedding trip, the couple are at home on Barker Street, Lumberton, NC.

The couple hosted a reception at the Locklear home immediately following the ceremony. The couple greeted guests in the foyer. An antique table in the foyer held a portrait of the couple displayed on an easel. Guests registered themselves upon arriving for the ceremony. Mrs. Horace Locklear invited the guests into the dining room to serve themselves from a table overlaid in an ivory antiqued lace cloth. A Silver Candlebra held an arrangement of pink roses, a alstroemeria lilies, daisies, nerine lilies, baby's breath, in tones of lavender, pink, yellow, white and blue.

Mrs. Almon Hall and Mrs. Tammy Cooper poured punch from a silver appointed bowl. Mrs. Locklear served the tiered wedding cake and bridegroom's cake. The bridegroom's mother asked the bridegroom's cake.

Ms. Joyce Moore of Lumberton received and registered gifts which were displayed in the library. Guests were entertained with instrumental music from the String Quartet which played throughout the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Locklear of Pembroke received guests in the library and on the backporch. Good byes were said to the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Locklear were hosts at a wedding rehearsal on Thursday evening before the wedding at the Locklear residence, Route 8, Neddih Serca, Lumberton. Members of the wedding party attended. The betrothed couple chose this time to give their attendants gifts.
