FHLP Presented at Pembroke Kiwanis

Pembroke Kiwanis Club met Tuesday evening at the Town and Country Restaurant with Club President Lankford Godwin presiding.

Program Chairman Alvin Ray Lowery presented McKinley Jones, General Supervisor of Rural Housing as the speaker of the evening.

The main purpose of the program is to help people to help themselves in building their own houses. The program has been in existence since 1975 and to date some 90 homes have been built for low income families. The program is under the direction of the U.S. Department of Labor. Technical assistance and planning assistance are given to qualified farm people.

New Kiwanis member, Jimmy Ray Hunt, was presented and welcomed into the club.

The invocation was given by Albert Hunt and Lankford Godwin was the song leader with Ira Pate Lowry as pianist.

PJH to observe Career Awareness Day

Friday morning, Nov. 19, has been proclaimed as Career Awareness Day at Pembroke Junior High, to familiarize the students with the various career opportunities available in Robeson and surrounding counties. Throughout the morning the eighth and ninth graders will be able to hear presentations and to view many interesting exhibits displayed by approximately 40 participants. Participants include recruiters from the branches of Armed Forces, computer processing from PSU, Wildlife Resource Commission, local dental assistant, veterinarian, representatives from LRDA and members of the press, LOF Glass, Robeson Technical College, N.C. Dept. of Commerce, and many others.

Refreshments will be on sale and door prizes donated by local merchants, and local textiles will be given away. The career awareness day was kicked off two weeks ago to enable the students to guess the amount of the contents in the jar for a prize and the contents of the jar.

The administration, the Chapter I and Vocational teachers wish to extend to High student and any interested persons in the county, a cordial invitation to attend the Career Awareness Day on November 19 from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.
