Halloween sights and sounds filled the air recently at Fairgrove School as Mrs. Freida Bullard's 6th Grade class presented a play entitled "The Little Pumpkin." Classes that were able to seek, along with some of the school personnel, all agreed that the play was indeed a good way to set the mood for the holiday.

Characters in the play were portrayed by the following students: Moon-Bobby Hunt; Pumpkin-Dinah Hunt; Narrator-Jennice Hyatt; Mickey-Michael Hunt, Teresa Blue; Fiddlers-Donna Hunt, William Hunt, Wanda Watts; Fireflies-Wendy Scott, Rodney Glover, Staci Watson; Spiders-Johnny Locklear, Nicole Lowery, Matthew Chavis; Witch-Sharon Davis; Cat-Sue Ann Locklear; Ghost-Anthony Martin; Skeleton-Michelle Sampson; Trick-or-Treaters-Mark Watson, Edith Hunt, Sybil Thomas, Shawn Rogers, Diane Baker.

Halloween music added suspense and excitement to the production. The overall performance was quite a treat for the audience. After each performance, a treat was passed out to each class, compliments of Mrs. Bullard. Mr. Laroce Hunt, Principal, thanked Mrs. Bullard and the class for presenting the play and commented on the quality of the performance.

A speed-frenz we know bought a new car painted red on one side and blue on the other. "What's the idea of doing your car up like that?" we asked. "It's for when I get hauled up before the judges for speeding," said our young-man-in-a-hurry. "You ought to hear the witnesses contradicting one another."
