

Bear Swamp Setting for Twins' Baby Shower

Bear Swamp Church Fellowship Hall was the setting for a floating baby shower given to infant twins Chamaine Renee and Sherese Marie Brooks, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. David E. Brooks.

Upon arrival Mrs. Wanda Brooks, mother of the twins, was presented a corsage of silk mini yellow roses and white star flowers. The father, Dr. David E. Brooks, was presented a boutonniere of yellow rose and white star flowers.

The shower was given by Mrs. Mary Oxendine Bare of Salisbury, NC, cousin of the twins' father, and Mrs. Lois Sanderson, sister of the father.

Decorations were done by Mrs. Bare. White lighted candles were placed on white tablecloths covered each table. Centerpieces for the food table were ABC music boxes in the shape of blocks and decorated with silk flowers arranged in them. Pink, yellow, and green streamers were used to decorate each table. The mantel was decorated with holly berries and baby's breath with lighted candles.

The punch bowl was decorated with yellow mums and baby's breath. Cake squares decorated in yellow, green and pink colors were adorned with miniature baby things on top of each one. Mints in pink, yellow and green in the shape of booties and strollers were also served. Other finger foods served were chicken salad squares, rolled luncheon meat sandwiches, a variety vegetable tray with vegetable dip, a cheese ball with dip, and a variety of party nuts.

Approximately forty ladies attended.

Jennifer Oxendine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Oxendine, is shown being crowned Queen of Pembroke Middle School for the year 1982-83 by Lisa Locklear, Miss Pembroke Middle School 1981-82.

CHEROKEE CHAPEL NEWS Mrs. Jessie B. Chavis

Rev. Julian Ransom, pastor of Cherokee Chapel Methodist Church, Wakulla, NC brought his farewell message last Sunday for the 1982 conference year.

Worship service began at 11 a.m. with "Love Feast" administered to the congregation by the stewarts.

Following the ritual of "Love Feast," the reception of two probationary members was given by the pastor.

Rev. Ransom's scripture reading was taken from John 2:1-10 followed by special music from the adult choir using the following selections: "Why?" and "When We Sing Around the Throne Eternal."

Following the music, Rev. Ransom brought the message using for his subject "The Best is Yet to Be."

At the close of the message, Rev. Ransom announced the closing song with Freddy Oxendine to give the closing prayer as he marched down to the vestibule to give his goodbye greetings to the whole congregation.

Rev. Ransom thanked them for their presence and especially the support given him during the 1982 conference year.

Honored on 30th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Craig

On Sunday, Sept. 5, the children and grandchildren of Ralph and Annie Locklear Craig honored their parents with a 30th wedding anniversary celebration at their home on Route 2, Taylorsville, NC.
