SCHOOL COUNSELOR'S CONFERENCE HELD

The 1982 North Carolina School Counselor's Conference was held November 11 & 12 in Raleigh at the Radison Plaza. Mrs. Jo Ann Chavis Lowery, Mrs. Pattie Brayboy, Mrs. Aggie Deese, Mrs. Brenda Larke, Mr. Josephus Locklear, Mr. Clarence Locklear, Mr. Harold Deese, Mr. Wesley Revels, and Mr. Bobby D. Locklear, counselors from the Robeson County School Unit, and Mrs. Marcia Hunt, Ms. Harriet Mason and Miss Rose Marie Lowry of the Health Careers Awareness Program of the Robeson County Schools all attended. Program sessions were presented to help counselors enhance and update their skills. The keynote speakers were Dr. William Watson Purkey, Professor of Counselor Education at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and Ms. Marlene Pinten, President of the American School Counselors Association. The thirty nine program sessions covered such topics as relaxation training, working with troubled adolescents, child abuse, discipline in the schools, and drug prevention.

Maxton Scouts

thank those who Helped Them...

The Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts of Troop and Pack 303, Maxton, wish to thank the merchants and townspeople who participated for making the doughnut sale on Oct. 16 a big success. The proceeds from the sale will go into the treasury for purchasing supplies. Without the cooperation of everyone involved, this sale would not have been such a success. The Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts meet weekly at Drowning Creek Reservation and wish to thank Mr. Huel Cummings for the use of the hall. On Oct. 30th the Scouts held a Halloween Party, inviting their younger brothers and sisters. About 40 children showed up for the party. The children bobbed for apples, played games and listened to spooky stories. Prizes for the best costumes were given. First prize went to Locklear. Second place was tied between Bryan Locklear, left, and Jason Jones. The judges for the best costumes included Bracey Jones, Sr. All in all, a good time was enjoyed by everyone.

IN THE ARMED FORCES

LEO D. RAYAS
Pvt. Leo D. Rayas, son of Anna L. Rayas of Pembroke, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training. The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapon infantryman and an individual crewman. Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or machine gun platoon. He is a 1982 graduate of the Infantry School.
