History Alive!

Donna Jones and Danny Wilson, both seniors at PSU, help make history come alive for elementary students in the Robeson County Schools.

This is the third year the students have volunteered to Act our Prominent People in American History for students.

Archie Oxendine, Community Schools Coordinator, stated "this is one of the best educational programs in the systems." Donna dressed as Harrett Tubman, slave woman before the Civil War.

Danny dressed as Ben Franklin, the man of history. Dr. Chet Jordan, theatre director at PSU, is working with the Robeson County Schools on this project that has been so well received by teachers and students.

"Our evaluation of the Living History Project is a learning experience for the University students and for our students in public education," continued Archie Oxendine. "Student learning history. A program that is good for the Community Schools Program and Pembroke State University."

PSU to host N.C. Theatre Conference Secondary Play Festival

PSU is proud to host the annual North Carolina Theatre Conference Secondary Play Festival, December 11 and 12, 1982.

Representing region three and four, approximately 18-20 high schools will participate in the 2 day presentation of one act plays chosen by the respective schools. This activity is sponsored by the Secondary School Theatre Division of the North Carolina Theater Conference and is produced by the Theater Division of the Department of Communication and Theatre at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The general purpose of the program is to stimulate interest and participation in Theater Arts in North Carolina. It will serve as both a showcase and a means of evaluating and improving standards of the secondary school theatre program in the state.

The one act plays will be in competition and will be judged on several points including CREATIVE expression, standards of excellence and techniques demand by the various styles of expression.

The Regional Awards to be given are: Distinguished Play, Honorable Mention Play, Best Actor, Best Actress, Honorable Mention Acting, Ensemble Acting, Honorable Mention Ensemble Acting, Excellence in Directing, Theatre Arts and the NCTC Regional Theatre Award.

Enoch Morris, Coordinator of Dramatic Activities at PSU coordinated the Play Festival, which includes a line up of activities. Beginning at 12 p.m. on Friday, December 10, a play is scheduled every hour until 9 p.m., breaking at 5 p.m. for dinner. Saturday, Dec. 12, the one act plays will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m., breaking at 12 p.m. for lunch.

There is no charge for these performances and it is open to the public. For more information call 521-0778.
