forms of Indian dance. As a reflection of his grandfather Red Dawn appeared in a full Chief's dress as he told of his early childhood experiences. The young audience participated as Red Dawn taught the ancient hand-talk known as Indian sign language.

A display of Indian dolls and artifacts gave the youngsters insight to Plains and other Indian cultures, selected Indian dances were interpreted authentically by Blue Eagle, the adopted son of Chief Red Dawn. The soaring "Flight of the Eagles" dance, interchanged was the "Spirit Deer." Flying Feathers and ringing bells highlighted the "Fancy Plains War Dance." Blue Eagle's Hoop Dance finale brought great applause from the students and faculty.

Chief Red Dawn was a master in his presentations. Blue Eagle's dance interpretations were thrilling. "Legend into History" was a delightful program, a true learning experience for both the students and faculty.

Pembroke Jaycees have Christmas Spirit

Pembroke, NC—The Pembroke Jaycees had a joyous occasion at their regular Dec. 8, 1982, Wednesday night meeting, when they entertained some 33 youngsters from the 16th Judicial District Court System. Mr. Freddie Maynor, Court Counselor II, said of the event: "It was a fine way to say Merry Christmas to a group of our future citizens. The Jaycees have got to be congratulated on working so hard in their community to make it a better place to live."

The Court Counselor works with young men from 6 years old to 18 years of age. The jaycees feel that maybe by showing some love in their heart will help prepare these young men for the upcoming years of their life because they must take steps to prepare themselves in order to make better citizens of tommorrow. The Jaycees cooked hot dogs, hamburgers served potato chips, slaw, and every youngster enjoyed their favorite soft drink. Buddy Bell, Chairman of the event, was quick to say, "It really makes me feel good when I can set a good example for our young people and I must say, we adults should take more interest in our young people, because believe it or not, they really look at us for an example."

The Pembroke Jaycees invite any young man between the ages of 18-35 years of age to come and join the Jaycees, because the Jaycees can really make a difference in one's life. The meetings are held every Wednesday night at the Pembroke Jaycee Hut located on the Deep Branch Road.

State Purchasing described at Pembroke Kiwanis

Program Chairman, Henry W. Ozendine, presented Mr. Jim Lowry of the Purchasing and Contract Division in Raleigh. Mr. Lowry is now working in the Executive Division of the State Government. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club in Raleigh on inactive status. He keeps up with Pembroke Kiwanis by reading about it in the INDIAN VOICE.

The power in government is not vested in just a few people but in many people. The purpose of the Division of Purchasing and Contract is one of the most respected in the nation. With the advent of so many laws in contract and purchasing we have now added two full time attorneys. We contract for all public schools, all the state's fixed assets of 500 million dollars, all inventory and the disposing of all State property. In addition we purchase for many local governments. We purchase all automobiles a thousand dollars cheaper than the dealers can buy them. All contracts and purchases are guided by state laws. Contracts of ten to twenty million dollars are awarded weekly.

The responsibility for purchasing involves the needs of the 400,000 acres of land the state owns, 20,000 vehicles, 20 airplanes, many hundreds of buildings, there are two main items confronting the Division of Purchasing and Contracts—these are the District Court System and a cultural tourist center. The Tourist Center and the Route 40 problem are projects to be solved through the concept plan which has Governor Hunt's support. Questions and answers followed Mr. Lowry's presentation.

The Club voted to support the Community Welfare Christmas Fund and voted to send a high school student to Raleigh to attend the Hugh O'Brien Leadership Training Program. Adolph Dial presented material concerning the local Boy Scout Program. Ken Johnson has sold 100 tickets for the Pembroke Rescue Squad Fund Raising Program. Next Tuesday evening, Dec. 21, will be the Annual Christmas Program and Ladies Night.

Presiding was Alvin Lowry. Invocation was by Adolph Dial.
