The flash of lightning stood still! Men behind the glory of the Great Father... each bowed in silence. The Great Father who sent His messenger to earth began to speak. 'Hear me! Be afraid not! I come bearing good words which shall be to all My people who walk the earth. This day a newborn male Child lies in a distant camp. He is the Son of the Great Spirit. This child has come to speak great wisdom, and one day

He will teach in your councils. He has come to help men walk "the Way" to the land beyond. This sign you shall look for. He lies where the animals are tied. He is wrapped and bound around as all your little ones are.
These words were spoken, and once more the heavens filled with the great rumble of drums. Many more winged messengers joined in the singing as praises went up to the Great Father above: "may there be peace on this earth where man walks. May men walk together as brothers, each one learning upon the other. May they be strong, and walk with firm steps. May their minds be clear — may they speak with wisdom. May they walk with clean hands and straight eyes. May they walk all their days in love."

Christmas greetings to our friends and neighbors and may we take this time to thank each one who shared their news items with our readers of the Carolina Indian Voice helping to make the year 1982 more happy by reading about their friends, especially those in other states and towns. Some say it is almost like getting a letter from home. May God always bless each one of you. And may we always have room in our hearts for the Christ child. A word of warning to all our friends. Please remember when you are driving a car the wind cannot go through your wind shield, "but you can." Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own. Happy Holidays to all.

Letter to the Editor

John D. Locklear Victim of Justice?

Another week has come and gone, with Christmas just around the corner. Many of us are now buying trees and picking up Christmas lay-aways.
Many Christmas Bazaars, choir rehearsals, school pageants and pre-Christmas parties are now in the final stages of completion. Our holiday schedules are busier than ever before.

here?"
Readers, for a short time, try and enter into this man's heart. Place yourself there, feel his inner thoughts. Listen to his inner voice speaking. "I am now in a world, a much different world than I have ever been before. Why am I here? Is there someone on the outside who can help me? I need your help, your money to prove myself. You see, with your help, I know I can be a free man again."
Faith in God (the Great Spirit) John has a lot of that; and surprisingly too, he still has faith in people. People like you and me.
Since I started writing about the John D. Locklear affair, I feel this man is innocent of the charges brought against him and should be given a chance to prove himself.

I wonder if John D. Locklear had been born of the Black or white race, would he be sitting now behind the walls of prison? I think not!
Review this man's case. Look at all the facts and you will see it all come down to one point. Poor legal defense. Why? Because of a lack of money to hire him a good lawyer. That is why.
Blacks and whites always rally around their own. Their churches and other organizations would gather together and give money for good legal defense. They would demand justice for their own. They also push their local and state officials. One of the reasons we vote for these people.

But what about us as Indian people? Are we going to sit by and do nothing?
Let's now call upon our churches, our many successful lawyers, our local and state officials. Let's get together and help this man have his day in court.
Let's not forget, if we can send a man to "Hollywood" for a screen test, we can surely be able to help a man have his day in court.
John D. Locklear need not be a victim of justice.

MT. AIRY NEWS
Violet Locklear
The Ladies Chorus rendered the special music Sunday morning which was wonderful.
The pastor's message was taken from Luke 2:8-20, the subject was "The Common Way of Man." I have heard so many comments this week about it being the most spiritual message he has ever preached. I just say it was among one of his best for they are all food to me.
He told about the shepherds who were just common everyday people like you and me. They visited the infant and afterward returning to their own people to report what they had seen. Then the Wise Men followed a star and it stopped directly above the place where Jesus lay. These scenes are important to us because they were remembered by those who a long time ago repeated the details of the life of Jesus because even at His birth, the indications were that He was no ordinary child. The signs of God were upon Him from the beginning.
The little children Sunday knew the story of Jesus. You can tell a child who is brought up in church and being taught the word of God.
The pastor and Mr. Monroe Chavis were presented gifts from the Mt. Airy Brotherhood by Mr. John L. Locklear Jr. He gave some brief statements etc. of what each one of these men means to them. I would say to the church as a whole, it would be hard to replace them.
Mrs. Cattie Mae Cummings was able to be back in church who recently returned home from Southeastern General Hospital. Mrs. Cummings is very dedicated to her church. We really missed her while she was out sick.
Thursday is an all day skate day for the children at the Roller Dome in Laurinburg. The pastor will be taking them on the bus.
The January Bible Study Week is nearing. Bro. Faye is preparing to lead the adult group. The pastor leads the younger adults. Our Sunday school workers in each division will assist in their own age groups.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ray Clark (Man) on the birth of a son, Garner Lee, born Dec. 15, weight 8 lbs. 3 oz. at Southeastern General Hospital. The Clarks have three sons and one daughter. Congratulations.
Also congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wylis Rogers who are the happy parents of a baby daughter, Lotoya Lynn born Dec. 7 which makes them three girls. They were hoping for a boy.
God's blessings on these families.
Mr. Charles Carter who is employed in Colorado came home Saturday to spend two weeks with his family and friends.

CHRISTMAS
As a child I can remember asking my mother why everybody was so happy at Christmas. I can still hear her reply: "It's because Jesus was born." That word Jesus! There is something about that name. The deep sentiment of love at Christmas makes people more happy than gifts.
Once again Christmas comes. Times are different. But the meaning and spirit of Christmas are still the same and always will be. Why? Because of Jesus' birth and what it means to all. With Him we can go into the new year with confidence and hope.
So as we celebrate the greatest gift ever given, will the God who gave it see us making the Son (Jesus) so much a part of our lives - all day - every day.
The more we learn about Jesus, the better we understand why people, both then and now decided to follow Him which is the most important decision we'll ever make.
To every reader of the CIV: hope you have a wonderful Christmas and a happy new year.
