Churches that were represented at the song service held in the afternoon were: the Allen children of the Smithtown Church of God; Riverside Church of God; East Church of God of Maxton; the Calvery Singers of the Smyrna Baptist Church; the Fairmont Church of God; a trio composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Maynor and Mrs. Stella Allen; and the Young Adults and the Junior Choirs of the host church. The pastor is the Rev. C.C. Allen Sr.

Mrs. Susie Martin of Lumberton was visited Sunday by her brother, Mr. James Calvin Chavis and his son, Mr. Dicky Chavis of Georgia, and Miss Teresa Chavis. Mrs. Martin is convalescing from surgery at her home.

Mrs. James Smith of Laurel Hill spent Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker are in due to injuries they received some weeks ago in a car accident.

Refreshment guests Sunday evening in the home of Mrs. Henry F. Smith were Rev. and Mrs. C.C. Allen Jr. and family of Hope Mills, Mrs. Tony Jones and children, Kimberly and Hendrick of the Beulah Baptist Church and Mrs. Hilda Faye Hunt, Mrs. Myra Sampson, Ms. Alma Garrity, Ms. Eula Mae Sanders, Rev. and Mrs. C.C. Allen, Sr. and Mr. and Ms. Webster Smith and daughter, Indee Smith.

Mrs. Flay Smith was honored Saturday night, Oct. 27 with a dinner given by her children in honor of her 80th birthday which was Tuesday, Oct. 30 held at the Fellowship Hall of Mount Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church where she is a member. Prayer was offered by Mr. Anthony Chavis. Approximately 150 relatives and friends attended along with Mrs. Smith's children who were all present.

Also present was her pastor the Rev. Johnie Pollard and his family. Mrs. Smith's children are her sons Mr. Donnie Smith of Maxton; Mr. Oscar Smith, Mr. Marvin Smith and Mr. Wade Smith, all of Richmond, Va.; her daughters, Mrs. Beulah, Ms. Carrie Lee Jacobs of Pembroke; Mrs. Leola Berry of Maxton; Mrs. Golmar McFay of Laurinburg; Mrs. Callie Ingar of Berea, Kentucky; Mrs. Cora Lee Stocks and Mrs. Mary K. Oliver of Knoxville, TN; and Mrs. Margaret Hines of Baltimore, Md. Some of the children were accompanied by their families.

The honoree received several nice gifts, along a money tree and many wishes for many more happy returns of the day and good health. On Sunday all of Mrs. Smith's children attended church service with her at Mount Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church. At the close of the Sunday School, Mrs. Dora M. Oxendine received special recognition and was presented a plaque by Mrs. Beulah Smith from the Smith family for the kindness she has and is still giving to their mother.

We at the Carolina Indian Voice all are happy for God's blessing you with these many years to serve him. We wish you many more. May God bless you and your family.

The altar flowers were furnished Sunday for the morning service at Mount Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church by Mr. and Mrs. John Malcolm and family.

The annual Homecoming is scheduled to be held Sunday, November 11, at Mount Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church in Pembroke. The Rev. J. Donner Lee of Falcon and the Conference Superintendent of the Whiteville P.H. District, will be the guest speaker at the morning service. A song service will be held in the afternoon, beginning at 2:15. Make plans now to join your relatives and friends at this special event.

Mrs. Ola Brigman of Laurinburg was visited by her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Naumuk of Burgaw.

GERALD GARDNER... To be speaker at Pembroke State's fund-raising dinner Nov. 1.

Political Satirist To Speak At Fund-Raising Dinner

Gerald Gardner, described as one of the greatest creators of humor and political satire of our time, will be the speaker at the fifth annual Pembroke State University Kickoff Banquet to its Million Dollar Centennial Giving Campaign over a three-year period from 1984-87.

The $50-a-plate dinner will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1, in the English E. Jones Physical Education Center.

After the banquet, those holding dinner tickets will be special guests at the

PSU Performing Arts Center for a Pulitzer Prize-winning musical comedy entitled "Of Thee I Sing."

"Having this political humorist speak on Nov. 1 just before the elections is good timing," said planners of the dinner. One of Gerald Gardner's books was found in President John F. Kennedy's 45th birthday cake.

In 1961 Gardner created his new form of political satire with "Who's In Charge Here?" which displayed humorously captioned newsphotos of public figures.

MacLean, Sandlin To Lead Drive

The two top officials of Southern National Bank and Corporation - Hector MacLean and Joe Sandlin - will be co-chairmen of a Million Dollar Centennial Campaign Committee which will seek to raise $1 million over the next three-year period for Pembroke State University.

The campaign will conclude with the 1986-87 academic year, which will MACLEAN SANDLIN be when PSU celebrates its centennial. PSU's Founder's Day ceremony will be held on March 6, 1987, as the climax of the year.

PSU did not have giving campaigns until 1980 - and its goals have climbed each year since then from $50,000 to $60,000 to $100,000 to $150,000. Each year it has surpassed its goal. To reach the $1 million by the centennial year, PSU would more than double its giving in 1984-85 over last year - and maintain such a pace.

Sandlin has been co-chairman of PSU campaigns during three of the past four years. He shared the chairmanship in 1981-82 with James A. (Pete) Jacobs, then mayor of Pembroke. For the last two years he and Ira Pate Lowry of Pembroke have been co-chairmen.

MacLean, a former state senator and one of the leaders in helping PSU obtain university status in 1969, is chairman of the board and chief executive officer for Southern National Bank and the Corporation. He is a graduate of Davidson College and the UNC Law School. Former mayor of Lumberton, MacLean is president of the Medical Foundation of N.C. and a director of N.C. Natural Gas Corp.

Sandlin is president and chief administrative and chief financial officer of Southern National Bank and the Corporation. He is a graduate of William and Mary College.

IS YOUR INSURANCE AGENT LOCKED INTO ONE COMPANY?

There are 2 ways to buy insurance. You can buy your insurance from a one-company agent. But they're locked into only those policies that their company sells. So their hands are tied. Or you can buy your insurance from an Independent Insurance Agent... the more-than-one-company agent. You see, a Big "I" Independent Agent like us doesn't work for just one company. We represent several. So we're free to give you an impartial, independent opinion and help advise you on the best coverage at the best price. And that goes for homeowners, automobile, business, life and health insurance.

Before you reach a verdict about insurance, see your Big "I" Independent Insurance Agent... the more-than-one-company agent. We're not locked into one company.
