Surprise Birthday Celebration for Mrs. Marie Oxendine

Mrs. Marie Oxendine (Photo by Ms. Kay Locklear)

Mrs. Marie Oxendine celebrated her 67th birthday, Sept. 30, 1984, at Union Chapel Methodist Church. Approximately 94 people were in attendance. The dining hall was decorated in autumn colors with a picture of Mrs. Oxendine gracing the wall. A full course meal was served immediately after Sunday service. The celebration was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Jane Chavis, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry and Ann Oxendine. Mr. Crites Oxendine (pastor) welcomed the guests and introduced Mrs. Eva Jones, who commented on Mrs. Oxendine and her long lasting friendship.

Mrs. Jane O. Chavis read a poem entitled "You Are Autumn Splendor" and sang a song she had written for the occasion. Mr. Elton Hunt, assistant pastor, asked the blessing for the meal. Mrs. Oxendine received money and many lovely gifts.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Jones of Fayetteville. Special guests were Rev. Crites Oxendine, Rev. Elton Hunt, Rev. Patrick Cummings and Rev. Alonzo Oxendine, all pastors of the Lumber River Methodist Conference, and her three children: Jerry Ray Oxendine, Jane O. Chavis and Betty Bullock.

Mrs. Marie Oxendine was the former Marie Pate. She was the daughter of James Ellen Scott and Ed Pate. She has attended Union Chapel Methodist Church for approximately 50 years where she is a member. Mrs. Marie thanks God who allowed her these years and all those who made this a birthday she'll never forget.

IN HONOR OF MRS. MARIE OXENDINE YOU ARE AUTUMN SPLENDOR

by Jane O. Chavis

Autumn comes and Autumn goes... The splendor of your love, you bestow... Homeless at the young age of 12 years old... The world seemed so lonely and so cold... To a young child who was all alone... Taken in to an unknown home... God brought you through, those times are gone... For you are loved wherever you roam... You've taken care of many in need... Mother, father, family, friends indeed... You've crept out lightly during the night... To leave a christian track in the pale moon light... Hoping for some lost soul to see... And from 'sin they would rapidly flee... The author of motherhood you seem to be... You do so much but never charge a fee... The mother of five you used to be... But God took two and left you three... Dennis and Dallas are waiting for you... Sis and I will be coming too... Jerry, on this special day, we know won't be left behind... Cause you, through prayer, helped meet his fine... Because of you our days are brighter... You've got a good life you've been quite a fighter... You are Autumn Splendor Mother dear... We wish you happiness the coming year.

Fabulous Fallacies!

Myths about acne can cause confusion for many acne sufferers. First, acne is neither caused nor worsened by what you eat. Next, the disease is not infectious, nor is it caused by poor hygiene or dirt on the skin. In fact, for those with acne, too much washing can dry out the skin too much.

Perhaps the most misleading myth of all is that nothing can be done for acne—that only the passage of time will improve the condition. Actually, acne can be significantly improved if properly treated by a doctor. Among the treatments a dermatologist—a medical doctor who is a skin specialist—can prescribe for acne is an antibiotic, such as Clacin T, which is applied to the skin and helps kill the bacteria involved in acne blemishes.
