by Ken Johnson

Dr. Adolph Dial, professor of American Indian Studies at PSU, described their recent college course trip to eleven Indian Reservations including stop overs at Cherokee and saw the drama "Unto These Hills." Then on to Meridan, Mississippi visited the Choctaw Reservation, then traveled to Dallas, Van Horn, El Paso, Jaurze, Mexico, the Tigua Reservation and the Tewa Museum. The Tiguas recently won federal recognition. From El Paso they journeyed to Phoenix where they shopped at the Goldwater Mall. America Moving Rapidly Toward Paganistic World

Dear Editor:

As I have listened to many comments made about the Statue of Liberty, the sounds I have heard are Patriotic and very American to the ear. But not one change in American economic and social problems will come out of the noble statements about the Lady of Liberty. I am sure many hearts will be touched when they re-visit the old Statue. But my heart is so broken when I look out on this vast land of ours and am left with no doubt that our great American heritage and Nation is falling apart because the things upon which this nation was founded are being ignored - they were and are far greater than the Statue of Liberty. Men of God trust in one another rather than God as our founding fathers did.

I am moved with sorrow as we just passed the 4th of July for the young and the old no longer respect the red, white and blue. We are moving more rapidly toward a paganistic world and for this act we in America will certainly die as great ungodly nations have done in the past. Psalms 9:17 says "A Nation that forgets God shall be turned into hell." Time is running out for this nation and the direction in which it is proceeding.

STRIKE AT THE WIND GETS OFF TO A ROUSING START

I might be biased, but I sincerely believe this season of 'Strike at the Wind' is the best one yet. I hope my fans will forgive me, but I play Sheriff Reuben King in the show, and I must admit that I enjoy playing before a live audience. I must have a bit of the ham in me.

If you want to have a good time, and enjoy an evening under the stars with your family...I recommend 'Strike at the Wind' to you. The show runs every Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Prices are reasonable and more information can be obtained by calling the box office at 521-3112.

AND CONGRATULATIONS TO LRDA FOR A WONDERFUL LUMBEE HOMECOMING

Lumbie Homecoming was a wonderful experience for all of us, and LRDA is to be commended for a bang up job. Thousands of people turned out to enjoy the various activities, and every one seemingly had a good time.

A special treat was the homecoming parade. It was so nice to see former Governor Jim Holshouser riding in the parade. Lumbie people owe him a great debt of gratitude, and it was nice to hear the people along the parade route call to him affectionately as he rode by.

Indian people have not forgotten that it was Governor Holshouser who spearheaded the effort to Save Old Main. It was just nice to see him. He related to friends how pleased he was at his reception. I really honor him, and respect him to the utmost. I wish him a long life, and reasonable good health. According to reliable sources, Governor Holshouser suffers from a debilitating kidney problem.

DWIGHT LOWERY IS PLAYING WELL WITH THE DETROIT TIGERS

Dwight Lowry, a Lumbie hometown boy, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lowry, has been getting more and more playing time as the season continues. He is the back up catcher for Lance Parrish (probably the best catcher in baseball) and is hitting well. In fact, as of this date, he is leading the Tigers in hitting with a hefty .357 as of July 4, 1986. Keep swinging, Dwight.

Howard Says: PEMBROKE DRUG CENTER

Which generics do we dispense?

True or false. Generic drugs are made primarily by small drug companies which often slip through the monitoring process of federal agencies.

In truth, nearly 90% of generic drugs are distributed by major brand-name houses and meet the same FDA standards and tests for quality required of other major drugs.

As your pharmacy, we'd rather not stock the other 10% to insure peace of mind, as well as our reputation. Trust us to carefully scrutinize the drugs we buy - and particularly those we dispense!
