NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

A public hearing will be held at 7:30 p.m. on August 18, 1992, at LRDA Headstart Office to discuss LRDA's plan to use a Community Services Block Grant for fiscal year 1992-93.

The report on the proposed use of the Community Services Block Grant Funds is available for inspection at the office of James A. Hardin, Executive Director of LRDA and Lumberton Energy Office. The report will also be available at the public hearing. Persons interested in reviewing the report should visit the office of the Executive Director or attend the public welcome.

The following is a summary of the LRDA Plan: LRDA proposes to use the Community Services Block Grant to (1) Provide Tribal Enrollment Services for the Lumbee Tribe; (2) To assist the operations of 12 Indian Senior citizens chapters; (3) To assist low-income Indian People to be involved in activities that will help them become more self-sufficient; (4) To assist Indian families to participate in the LRDA/Lumbee Tribe Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program and other public assistance programs; and (5) To obtain help in crisis situations including food, referral services, etc.
