Ba. Collins Goins Announces Bid for Seat on EMC Board of Directors

VOLUME

Barbara Collins Goins. a native Shannon, announces her bid for the at-large position on the Lumbee River EMC Board of Directors. The annual meeting, at which four directors will be elected. is scheduled for Tuesday. October 1st. at the Performing Arts Center on the campus of UNC at Pembroke. Registration begins at o p.m.

During the past eight years. Goins has been employed with the Department of Defense. working at Fort Bragg, NC. "I have worked for the Contracting office. as a Purchasing Agent and The Directorate of Logistic as a Supply Technician. I am presently a Special Emphasis Program Chairperson (SEPC) for Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) representing the Native Americans at Fort Bragg. Goins stated.

On November 7, 1995, Goins was honored with an award for her service at Equal Employment Opportunity:

She received her high school diploma from Fayetteville State University in 1979, and earned 63 quarter hours at Robeson community College during 1979-80. She received a certificate in Small Business Contracting course in 1990 thru the University of Maryland, West Germany Goins lives with her husband.

Donnic and their two sons. Donnic and Elvis in Shannon.

'I have a desire." Goins said. to be off assistance to my community I wish to be in a position to assist our elderly and handicapped consumers on the EMC That is one of the reasons I have chosen to seek a seat on the EMC Board of Directors 1 know something about the hardships that our elderly and handicapped consumers face each day. As a woman. I know how difficult it is to manage a household, work a full time job, and be a full time wife and mother. I believe that I can enhance the program of our EMC and be an asset to our consumers.

Goins continued. "With the 12member board of directors, there is only one woman serving. I believe that women should have more representation on that board because women are more sensitive to issues, most of the time, than men. There is a need for sensitivity. for concern, and for dedication on the board. I offer these qualities of the member-consumers of EMC. A vote for me is a vote for you the consumer! I would appreciate your vote and support October 1 and promise. if elected, to represent consumers fairly and honestly

News from Pembroke VFW Post

Getting Charged Up For The Veterans Day Parade

The monthly meeting convened at Post Headquarters Monday evening, September 9, 1996 We had a very low turn out but there were very interesting topics revealed and discussed with those in attendance The Post Commander Rev. Hilton Deese and elected officers are doing their best to make the meetings worthwhile for our members to attend.

We in the local area had a wake up call Thursday evening from our Heavenly Father 1 had just finished saying my prayers and asked God to watch over me less than ten minutes later I heard a big thud sound and got up and looked out my kitchen window. Lying diagonally from my house was a large pecan tree. It hit my utility building, but my house was spared. I thank the Lord for His mercy to me

At 7 p.m. prayer was offered for the food. The menu consisted of fried pork chops. fried chicken. potato and cheese casserole, corn. biscuits, spice cake with banana syrup topping, ice tea and ice water Rev Smith Locklear blessed the food We had two dinner guests: Post Commander Jim Clark and wife Post Chairman Mrs. Jean Clark of Hope Mills VFW Post.

& 30 p m, the joint session was called to order. Prayer was by Post Chaplain Archie Oxendine Renderto colors followed. A ceremony was presented by Mrs. Clark on bchalf of MIA-POW war men and women who never returned home from all the wars the USA has fought in. It was a very heart warming ceremony 1 wish all post members could have witnessed it.

She was applauded by everyone on upon completion of the ceremony As I previously stated last month.

the post was supposed to be guests at Mt. Air Baptist Church the 8th. Ductopower outages, the ceremony was cancelled. We asked if we can go be with them on October 13th. If so, Mr. James Locklear, please call the Carolina Indian Voice and ask Ms. Connecto please announce it either way. That way hopefully we will have a large representation of our post members. We urge all members to please attend.

7:57 meeting adjourned. Ladies retired to their meeting room. 8:00 P.M. Post Commander Deese called the meeting to order. A new member was presented to the post and accepted by all. We welcome Mt. James S. Harrell to pur post. Having been sworn in County but will begin serving as a cligible to nominate students for District Court Judge in January after the award. There have been at least a currently uncontested November ten winners of the Morchead General Election. He is married to Scholarship Award from Robeson Brenda Moore who works with Dr County since the program was Sandra Locklear in Pembroke They established.

We iways serve good old spots. deep fried. Please plan ahead and we ask for your support.

We have a great number of elderly people at home and in rest homes who would love for someone to come by and just say hello and let them know that they are not forgotten. Would you please be that person to shed a little hope in their lives" May our God bless you until next month.

Erwin Jacobs Post Surgeon

Say you read it in Carolina Indian Voice. To subscribe call 521-2826 condition and they do not have gyms like in the American schools do nor do they have a lot of rules to abide by Maria likes the American schools but she said that there are too many rules to abide by and too many people in the school. She said she likes living in America but she is not use to living in the country. She misses her family and friends.
