

TV Stations Mum On Princess Diana Book

Rev. Edmond Locklear, Jr. of Pembroke (NC) wants a guest appearance on TV stations in Wilmington, Raleigh and Charlotte. He wants to talk about his new book: How God Sees Princess Diana. No reply from the stations.

"I can't understand it," says Locklear. "Letters were sent to station program directors on December 1st. We asked for a list of programs so arrangements could be made with producers for December 15 in Wilmington, December 17 in Raleigh and December 19 in Charlotte. Now it's mid-January, 1998. There's been no reply, no invitations."

When then Lady Diana was married on July 29, 1981, Locklear was moved to speak a Prophecy in two parts. He published the Prophecy in another book in 1984. One part of the Prophecy saying Diana would not celebrate her fifth wedding anniversary was fulfilled on July 29, 1986, when the marriage was so stressed she and Prince Charles let the 5th anniversary pass. Now, the second part of the Prophecy may take Prince William, says Locklear. He wants to talk about the Prophecy on the TV stations.

Also, says Locklear, he wants to tell parents they can use How God Sees Princess Diana to reach their teenagers with Christian morals. Besides presenting the real Diana, the book has a game built around words dear to Diana, info boxes giving Q&A on God's laws on marriage, adultery and general relationships, all topics which so ruled Diana's life, and clip art of women and flowers for remembrance. The book, the only one written from a Christian point-of-view, details what Diana's life may have been had she lived a Christian life.

In that way, says Locklear, "my book gives a strong message to young people. If they live in sin they may well die the same way and may die before they expect to." He cites Ephesians 6:12 and I Peter 5:8 as verses every young person should know.

Locklear says: "Few teenagers will listen when parents talk about right and wrong. But, my book is so attractive, they will read it and play the word game and they will learn Christian morals. It's like medicine slipped into a soda. In each book, we put an insert of a free article for parents and grandparents. The article is titled: 'How To Reach Your Teenager With A Princess Diana Book'."

He wants so much to let parents in and around Wilmington, Raleigh and Charlotte know the book is available. "We need to do everything possible to turn our young people from WrongSex (fornication, adultery, gay sex), alcohol, drugs, and so on. My book shows how young people can get into strange circumstances and lose their lives as Diana lost hers if they are involved in WrongSex. Other Diana books and the supermarket tabs have presented a hyped up, saint-tified Princess Diana. Locklear says it's important young people see the real Diana and see how her lifestyle may well have contributed to her own fatal accident."

The Diana saga is not over, according to Locklear. She was a thorn in the side of the royal family as he tells on page 28 of How God Sees Princess Diana. Now, the saga is not over. The royal family must deal with the second part of the Prophecy. If the first part fulfilled, why not the second part, reasons Locklear.

Locklear hopes many God-fearing people will read his book because of the Prophecy. At her wedding on July 29, 1981, Diana had the part requiring her to promise to obey her husband removed. Locklear says that was wrong. He stands by his belief God gave him a Prophecy. He thinks the Prophecy was not only for Diana, but for all men and women and their relationships.

The Prophecy should tell every person God is standing by His Word. Those people who do not obey His Word will suffer. My heart rejoices. God has spoken in our modern times. He is not dead. I hope Christians will read my book and have their faith lifted and their witnessing dramatized. God is real. Those people who don't believe He speaks today should beware."

Locklear goes on to say wondrous things can happen when people believe. He says he lays on hands and prays before a book is sent out. He believes God is going to touch some sick person who believes through the book and because of the fulfilling Prophecy. A small circular is inserted in every book telling sick people how to use the book and believe God for their healing.

How God Sees Princess Diana is 5.5x8.5, 130 pages, paperback and is published by WFCPress of Pembroke (NC). It is distributed by Baker & Taylor Books. It is available on the internet from Amazon.com. It lists for $16.95 and has a suggested retail price of $11.95. Locklear says anyone not able to get the book through local bookstores can simply put his or her name and address and a $10 bill in an envelope and send it to: WFCPress, Pembroke, NC 28372. The book will be shipped prepaid.

Rev. Locklear does not follow any particular denomination. At the present time he meets with a group of worshippers every Sunday in his living room because the group does not have funds to rent a building. Besides preaching God's Word, Locklear says he is blessed when he can anoint sick people and lay on hands and pray for them. He says the Lord has healed him a number of times. "Maybe," he says, "that is why it came to me to lay hands on each book before it is shipped out and pray for it to bless someone who believes."

Locklear was in church Sunday morning last August 31. His son-in-law told him Diana had been killed in a car accident. He says immediately his Prophecy stated in 1981 and published in 1984 came to him. "I remembered how I waited for her 5th wedding anniversary to come to see if she would celebrate it. She did not. My faith in my Prophecy was increased."

He says he began writing How God Sees Princess Diana after church that Sunday morning. "The title just came to me. I didn't do much in the way of planning the book. The parts just seemed to fall in place." He picked up a couple of books about Princess Diana on Monday morning at the public library. He researched and by Tuesday, the first draft was finished. He began revision Wednesday morning, September 3.

"I wrote How God Sees Princess Diana because I want to share with good Christian people everywhere the joy of God speaking. For so long the world has concluded He is dead. But, when the world famous Princess Diana sabotaged her wedding in 1981, God used that occasion to tell the world He is real. He still rules and He still blesses His people. Christians everywhere should lift up holy hands and praise Him and thank Him. Despite what we are going through, He is still with us."

Locklear says a strange thing happened on Thursday morning, September 4. "I awakened with a strong urging to place a Bible story at the end of each chapter of How God Sees Princess Diana. I sat down that morning and did what I usually don't do. I wrote out the Bible stories in long hand. I do all my composing on the computer. I did not have to think much about which story would go to each chapter. They just seemed to come to me in the right order."

Rev. Locklear is Native American. He is a retired educator. At the same time he spoke a Prophecy for Diana in 1981, he spoke one for Russia. He said Russia would break apart. That happened in 1992. "But, who believes?" he asks.
