Mrs. Chavis came to Maryland with her husband, Ernest Chavis in 1953. She began a 29 year career at General Motors Corporation where she retired. She was a wife, mother, teacher and friend to countless individuals. Rev. James Dial once state to her in a dream, "You are the one to hedge the gap" and she was true to that calling until the Lord took her

Search for Truth

by Elder Joseph Bullard
 Pembroke Seventh Day Adventist Church

The True Lord's Day- Saturday or Sunday?
 The greatest ambition that can grip the human heart is the desire to be like Jesus. So does it make any difference what day a person keeps for the Sabbath? Is any day acceptable to God? Are we willing to lay aside preconceived ideas and be led by the Holy Spirit into all truth? Join Elder Joseph Bullard in this Search for Truth as he turns to the Word of God for the answers to these important questions.

The example of Jesus is clear. Luke 4:16: "And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read."

The Lord has a day. Revelation 1:10: "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet."

The Lord's day is the Sabbath. Mark 2:27-28: "And he said unto them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Therefore, the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

Jesus is the creator, so He created the first Sabbath. John 1:1-3, 14: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

God took an ordinary day with 24 hours in it and did three things: Genesis 2:1-3: "Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made."

In the Ten Commandments God speaks of the Lord's Day. Exodus 20:8-11: "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it."

The seventh day is Saturday. Luke 23:46, 54-56; 24:1-6: "And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; and having said thus, he gave up the ghost...And that day was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on. And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment...Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen; remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee."

What day did the Apostle Paul keep as the Holy Day? Acts 17:2: "For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after them."

Jesus will not change, should we? Hebrews 13:8: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today and forever."

If we love Jesus, what does He ask? John 14:15: "If ye love me, keep my commandments."

Personal Accountability

"I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, said the Lord God; wherefore turn yourselves, and live." Ezekiel 18:32

Each person must decide to accept or reject God's way of salvation. There is much said of Christian love but very little is told of faithfulness to the word of God. Not many today can be recognized as to where they stand in Christ. Not many will use the topic of saved or deceived.

I have read some what of Dr. W.B. Riley who was the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Minneapolis and the founder of the Northwestern Schools. In his Christian calling he took up the battle to fight off the liberals. In doing so, he became distressed and gave up the fight, hoping to find a unified movement outside his convention which he might join. He found none and he stayed in the Northwestern Baptist Convention.

But before his death, he was so greatly convicted that he felt that he could not and would not die in a convention which had left the planned way of salvation set by God. Brother Riley sent an article to the Sword of the Lord and mimeographed copies of this article widespread announcing that he was leaving the Northern Baptist Convention and that he dare not die in it. He said he must not have his influence on he side of the ecumenical movement. And so Dr. Riley came out and died as an independent.

We are now, my friend, faced with this ecumenical (inclusive program of supporting whatever movement, just so they speak about Christian love, but faithfulness to God is not mentioned.)

Brother Ezekiel said "But if a man be just and do that which is lawful and right." In Genesis the 25th Chapter the story is told of two boys who grew and as they did, one became a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacobs was a plain man. Their father Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison. But Rebekah loved Jacob.

Jacob was a good cook and Esau a man who spent his life plotting and planning. He came in from the field and Esau said to Jacob, "feed me. I am faint." And Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright." Esau said, "Well here I am at the point of death and this birthright can't do me any good." And he sold it for a mess of pottage. And Esau eat and scripture says he went away and despised his birthright.

I know some folks today who have sold their birth right. They went back into the field of the world, but like Esau, you will have to come in and you will give account of your stewardship. Personal accountability. "In the place where the tree falleth, there shall it be." Eccl. 11:3. Wise Solomon said if the tree falls toward the south or the north, in the place where the tree falls, let it be. If you die in your sins, Jesus said himself, you cannot come. John 8:21. Jesus said ye cannot. If Jesus says that you cannot, then you cannot. Dr. Riley got out of a convention that did not preach accountability. Dr. Riley did not believe all who said that they were saved were saved.

Dr. Riley knew that a tree which fell to the north was north, but there is a group in our midst with an emotional excitement, a mingling of the true with the false, that it is well if adopted to mislead.

Yet none of us need be deceived. In the light of God's word it is not difficult to determine the nature of these movements. Wherever man neglects the testimony of the Bible, turning away from those plain, soul testing truths which require self denial and renunciation of the world, there we may be sure that God's blessing is not bestowed. And by the rule which Christ himself has given, ye shall know them by their fruits. Matthew 7:16. It is evident that these movements are not of God.

Oh, my friend, God has given us a revelation of himself and to all who accept them they are a shield against the deception of Satan. It is the neglect of these truths that has opened the door to evils which are now becoming so wide spread in the religious world. The law of God and this is importance, the law of God has been, to a great extent, lost sight of.

A wrong conception of the character, the perpetuity and the obligation of the divine law has led to error in relation to conversion and sanctification, and has resulted in lowering the standard of piety in the church.

Here, my friend, is to be found the secret to the lack of the spirit and power of God in the revivals of our time.

We for years speak of Jesus, how he loved everybody and he does, but he also demands accountability. There seems to be a lost sermon preached on the danger to enforce the divine law, in the days of the past the pulpit was an echo of the voice of conscience. The ministers gave a wonderful majesty to their calling by being examples of the master and giving prominence to the law, its precepts and its threatenings.

They reported the two great maxims that the law is a transcript of divine perfection and that a man who is not true to the law is not true to the love the gospel; for the law as well as the gospel is a mirror reflecting the true character of God. Personal accountability. Every man, said Brother Paul, works will pass in review before God and is registered to faithfulness or unfaithfulness. The tree, my friend, can't lie north and south. You cannot be saved and lost at the same time. You are in or out. Saved or deceived.
