

"Children...Honor your father and mother...that it may be well with you." Ephesians 6:1-3

The Indian Honor Association of Robeson County Honors These Indian Elders:

PURPOSE

The purposes for the organization are as follows: to promote honor and respect for Indian elders by their families and communities by recognizing the elders for their family's full participation in the electoral process of Robeson County in all primary and general elections and to encourage eligible Indian people and the public at large without regard to race, creed, sex, or national origin to register and vote in all elections.

Our Men And Women Doctors of Health Care

Joseph T. Bell
South Pembroke

He is married to Vicki Bell and they have two children. He is the son of James F. and Sarah Bell. He is a graduate of Pembroke Senior High. He received a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the UNC at Chapel Hill School of Pharmacy; a Doctor of Medicine from the UNC at Chapel Hill School of Medicine. He is an member of the American Academy of Pediatrics; Associate of American Indian Physicians; Committee on Native American Child Health; National Marrow Donor Program; Maternal Child Health Committee; Choctaw Nation Indian Hospital; Guilford Native American Association; and the Carolina Indian Circle, UNC at Chapel Hill. He received the James Bullin Community Service Award from the UNC School of Medicine; the Indian of the Year Award, Guilford Native American Association; Distinguished Service Award, Carl Albert Indian Hospital; and the Distinguished Service Award, Choctaw Nation Indian Hospital.

David E. Brooks
North Pembroke Precinct

He is married to Wanda J. Brooks and they have five children. He received a B.S. degree in Chemistry from UNCP, a B.S. degree from the School of Applied Sciences at Tuskegee University, and he is a graduate of Tuskegee University School of Veterinary Medicine with a D.V.M. degree. He is owner and operator of Pembroke Veterinary Hospital. Dr. Brooks is a member of Bear Swamp Church. He is a member of the Pembroke Chamber of Commerce; and a charter member of the Robeson County Committee of 100.

Robin G. Cummings
Moore County

He is married to Rebecca G. Cummings and they have four children. He is the son of Rev. Simeon F. Cummings and Mrs. Maude L. Cummings. He is a graduate of Pembroke Senior High School; UNC at Chapel Hill; and Duke University Medical School. He is employed as a Cardiothoracic Surgeon, Department of Cardiac and Thoracic Surgery, Pinehurst Surgical Clinic, Pinehurst, NC.

Rhonda S. Lowry
South Pembroke Precinct

She is married to C. Brooks Lowry. She received her B.S. at UNCP and her M.D. from ECU School of Medicine, Greenville, NC. Professional societies she has been associated with are the College of American Pathologists, American Society of Clinical Pathologists, Association of Native American Medical Students, American Medical Association-Medical Students Section, North Carolina Academy of Family Physicians, American Academy of Family Physicians, and the American Indian Science and Engineering Society. Community service include National Bone Marrow Donor Drive, Blood Pressure Screening, New Bethel Methodist Church and Greenville Community Shelter.

William E. Sanderson
Back Swamp

He is married to Cindy A. Sanderson and they have two children. Son of the late William L. Sanderson and Vergie Sanderson, he is a graduate of Fairgove High School, UNCP, and UNC Chapel Hill School of Medicine. He is employed in private practice with Heritage Family Medicine in Hope Mills and is attending physician at Highsmith-Rainey Hospital and Cape Fear Valley Medical Center.

Martin L. Brooks
South Pembroke Precinct

Married to Jeanette P. Brooks. They have six children. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Medicine. HE is the chairman-elect of the N.C. Board of Directors, N.C. Physicians Health program. He is a member of the American Medical Association, North Carolina Medical Society, and Robeson County Medical Society. He is an active member of Berea Baptist Church of Pembroke.

Shirlene Hunt Thompson

Ms. Hunt is a graduate of the East Carolina School of Medicine. She is also a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she received a degree of MSPH Parasitology. She received her B.A. degree from Wake Forest University.

Cheryl R. Locklear
South Pembroke Precinct

She attended UNC at Chapel Hill. She received a Doctor of Dental Surgery Degree in 1979 (First Native American Graduate of UNC School of Dentistry). She also received a Masters of Public Health Degree in Mathematics. She established private dental practice in Red Springs, NC. Internship with the Phoenix Area Health Regional Office Indian Health Service. She was named 1 of 25 Native American Women of Distinction in 1994, one of Five Outstanding Young women in NC, Crowned Miss Lumbee in 1967. She is involved with Member of the Southeastern Dental Society, American Dental Association, Board Member of Branch Banking and Trust, Chairperson of Robeson County Morehead Scholarship Selection Committee. Lifetime member of Pembroke State Alumni Association. She attends Berea Baptist Church and is a member of the choir, past president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Jeff Collins
South Pembroke Precinct

He is married to Sybil Collins and they have three children. He is the son of James and Betty Collins. He graduated from Prospect High School, UNCP and Howard University School of Dentistry. He is a member of ADA, AGDA, Southeastern Dental Society and North Carolina Dental Society.

Christopher Wade Hunt
Alexandria City Precinct

He attended UNC at Chapel Hill and the Medical School of UNC at Chapel Hill. Significant position is attending physician at Alexandria Virginia Hospital. He is employed with Joel Kaslow and Christopher Wulfant Association. Organizations Deployment American Board of Internal Medicine, Association of American Colleges and Physicians, and the Board of Directors for Scholars Request and Health Care.

Eugenia B. Howie

She is married to Steve Howie. She attended UNCP, UNC School of Medicine. She is the first female Lumbee Indian to attend and graduate. She also went to Duke Fane (Internship) She works for the SRMC Referral Center.

Bobbie A. L. Stanley
Wake County

She is married to James Stanley II and they have two children. She is the daughter of Grover and JoAnn Locklear. She received a B.S. in Biology from UNCP and a Doctor of Dental Surgery from UNC at Chapel Hill. She is in private practice and family and cosmetic dentistry. She is an member of Wake County Indian Education Parent Committee; Triangle Native American Society; American Dental Association; American Academy of General Dentistry; NC Dental Society; Wake County Dental Society; and Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry. She has received awards from the UNC Dental School Table Clinic, UNC Dental School Honorary Student Award and the Delta Sigma Delta Dental Fellowship Award.

Thomas E. Maynor
Burnt Swamp

Married to April D. Maynor, they have two children. He is the son of Tommy and Betty Maynor. A graduate of ECU, Greenville, NC, he received a B.S. in Biomedical Chemistry from PSU, a B.S. in Public Health Nutrition from UNC Chapel Hill; Medical Education Development Program, the UNC School of Medicine at Chapel Hill; Master's of Public Health, the UNC Chapel Hill, and Medical Doctor from ECU School of Medicine, Greenville, NC. He is a member of the North Carolina Medical Society, American Indian Science and Engineering Society, Student National Medical Association, Southern Medical Society, Association of American Indian Physicians, American Academy of Family Physicians, American Medical Association and the North Carolina Academy of Family Physicians.

Myra D. Hall

Ronnie Lowry
Prospect

He is married to Endoria Lowry and they have two children. He is the son of Praford and Lendora Lowry. He graduated from West Robeson High School, UNCP and UNC School of Dentistry. He is a member of ADA, AGDA, Southeastern Dental Society and North Carolina Dental Society.

And when we are not feeling well physically, it is good to know that we can go to someone who understands us. We are more comfortable with our own people!