The natural way to treat intestinal gas.
Experts say that thousands of Americans are choosing natural or homeopathic products to solve the painful problem of intestinal gas.
Homeopathy is a practice in which a practitioner administers natural remedies to stimulate a patient's immune system to fight a specific ailment - the treatment method has become popular and widely accepted in the U.S.
In fact, The FDA Consumer magazine reports a 1,000 percent increase in the use of natural remedies in just a 10-year period.
The latest remedy to become popular in the alternative medicine movement to treat intestinal gas is CharcoCaps' Homeopathic Formula.

Did you know that intestinal gas can be caused by fatty or fibrous foods, lactose intolerance, swallowing air, food intolerance or certain bacteria. When gas does not pass out of the body easily, it can cause bloating and pain - an uncomfortable problem for many people.
CharcoCaps' combines four ingredients to create a homeopathic formula, considered by many pharmacists to be effective at stimulating and supporting the body's defenses against intestinal gas.
The four ingredients are: carbo vegetabilis (activated charcoal); lycopodium clavatum (wolf's claw); cinchona officinalis (cinchona bark); and sulphur.
For a free sample and a money saving brochure send $2.00 to cover postage and handling to CharcoCaps' Offer, P.O. Box 2384b, Bridgeport, CT 06608.
