

Child Care Directions Plans for a Busy Fall

Child Care Directions, the Robeson County Child Care Resource & Referral has plans for much training and workshops for early childhood professionals to participate in over the next several months.

On Saturday, November 6th from 8a-3p CCD will hold its annual Fall Conference at Robeson Community College. They expect over 200 child care professionals to attend this conference. The workshops include topics such as:

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| Fire Inspection | Shake, Rattle, & Roll |
| Abuse & Neglect | Be active Kids |
| Playground Safety | Music & Movement |
| Professional Development | Preventing Child Abuse |
| Literacy | Infant Environments |
| & Caring for Children with Challenging Behavior | |

The cost of the conference will be $20 for CCD members, $25 for non-member's and $30 after 10-29-04. The cost will include a continental breakfast, a boxed lunch, and many opportunities to win door prizes, shop with vendors, and network with other child care professionals. Many area businesses are donating door prizes, donating items for the "goodie bags", or making contributions to CCD to support this annual event and show appreciation to those who care for our youngest citizens.

For further information, please call CCD at 671-8335 or stop by their office at 210 E. 2nd Street for a registration packet.

North Carolina is blessed with several exceptional medical facilities.

It's Southeastern Regional Medical Center.

The real news is that one of them is conveniently located in Lumberton.

SRMC. IT'S THE CLOSEST THING TO PERFECT HEALTH.

And isn't that what medicine is supposed to be about?

We realize that the less time you spend traveling to appointments or therapies, the more time you'll have to spend with your families and others you care about.

TECHNOLOGY THAT LEAVES NO QUESTION UNANSWERED.

SRMC is equipped with the most up-to-date technology for nearly any medical requirement.

These include:
 - Superbly staffed and equipped emergency and cardiac care resources.

SRMC technology addresses an entire alphabet of procedures, from catheterization to ultrasound

WE'RE CLOSEST TO THE ONES YOU'RE CLOSEST TO.

WE'VE GOT BACKUP RESOURCES SEWN UP.

Great medical care starts with great doctors, and at SRMC, we have a hand-picked team with an unsurpassed level of skill and expertise.

Plus, our physicians consult and interact regularly with those of Duke University Medical Center to provide the best possible care for you and the ones you love.

Supplementing this extended team are more than 1600 highly trained and dedicated support personnel.

These professionals could work anywhere, yet they've chosen to live and work here in the heart of southeastern North Carolina.

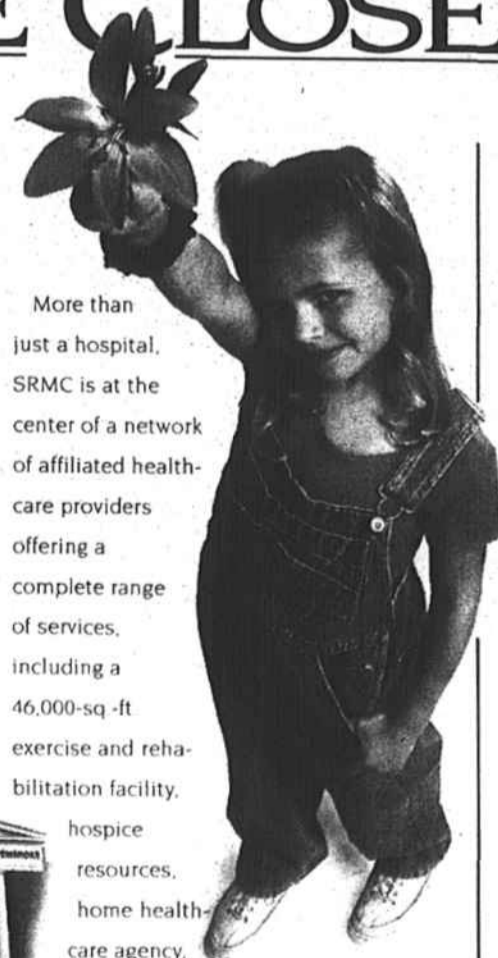

SRMC provides medical service to all of Robeson and surrounding counties

More than just a hospital, SRMC is at the center of a network of affiliated health-care providers offering a complete range of services, including a 46,000-sq-ft exercise and rehabilitation facility, hospice resources, home health-care agency, nursing care center, and more.

All supported by our excellent medical staff, who are located throughout Robeson County. So wherever you are, we're close.

- The latest diagnostic, imaging and treatment technologies, from catheterization to magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), x-rays and CTs.

- Modern surgical suites and the staff necessary to utilize them with supreme efficiency.

- A state-of-the-art cancer center that provides both oncology and radiation therapy.

Yet all this high-tech equipment would be useless without the people of SRMC, who

Supplemental classes and programs help you take charge of your own health and wellness provide the necessary caring human touch. Contact your neighbors at Southeastern Regional Medical Center.

Without question, it's the closest you'll get to good health.
