

Constantinople, and had been exposed, according to custom, on the gate of the palace, with a suitable inscription. A second message from Marshal Suwarow, dispatched from Alessandria, on the 21st inst. is just arrived. I am informed that, besides a detailed relation of the brilliant successes of the Imperial army on the 17th, 18th & 19th past, and by which it appears, that the lots of the French amounts in all to 20,000 men killed and taken prisoners; he brings an account of the Austrians having re-occupied the town of Tortona.

Extract of a letter from Lord Henley to Lord Grenville, dated July 9, 1799. "An express arrived yesterday with dispatches from Gen. Kray, of the 11th inst. mentioning the surrender of Bologna, by capitulation, to Gen. Kleman on the preceding day.

"In addition to the intelligence which I lately conveyed to your Lordship of the defeat of Gen. Buonaparte and his flight towards Joppa, I have now to state, that this government has received official accounts from Constantinople, dated the 22d past, that Joppa had been taken by the allied force (meaning, it is to be supposed, that under Sir Sidney Smith, and a body of Turks) that Buonaparte had reached El Arish, on the frontier of Syria, in his flight; and it was scarcely to be believed that in his present circumstances of distress he would be able to gain the Egyptian side of the desert."

Extract of a letter from Lord Henley to Lord Grenville, dated

Vienna, July 11, '99.

"It is with great and untinged pleasure that I inform your Lordship, that a messenger arrived here about an hour ago from Florence, with letters dated the evening of the 6th inst. stating, that on the preceding day, the people having assembled in great force, and cut down what is called the Tree of Liberty, the French sentinels and Corps de Garde had retired into the forts, and that the following day the French troops had left that town and Pistoia, and marched towards Leghorn; the old magistrates had immediately resumed their functions, and had replaced the arms of the Grand Duke in the places from which they had been taken down. No disorder whatever had taken place, and the greatest demonstrations of joy had been exhibited by all ranks of people.

"Gen. Kleman writes on the 7th, from Bologna, that in consequence of the influence of the magistrates of Florence, he had sent thither a detachment of troops under the command of Col. d'Aspre; these troops were attacked by the French garrison that marched out of Bologna, but succeeded in repelling them."

NORFOLK, Sept. 13.

SURINAM taken by the ENGLISH.

One of our pilots who had been out at sea with a brig from the port arrived here on Tuesday, informs, that he spoke a schooner from Surinam bound to Baltimore, out 17 days, the captain of which told him, that the above valuable colony had surrendered without opposition to the British, three days prior to his sailing.

Yesterday arrived the sch'r Caroline capt. Webb, 33 days from Jamaica; failed and kept company with the ship Smallwood, Johnson bound to Baltimore, and sch'r Columbia, Burcher, of and bound to George Town, Potomac—On the 22d August, off the island of Pines the schooner upset in a sudden squall and instantly went down with every one on board; and although in company with nine or ten vessels, it was impossible to save a single person, the being to windward of them all.

On the 16th inst. off Cape Hatteras, Capt. Webb spoke a schooner from Surinam bound to Baltimore, (probably the same the Pilot spoke) out 19 days—the Captain of the schooner informed Capt. W. that Surinam had surrendered to the British without any resistance; and that a French 20 gun ship lying in Surinam river had capitulated to the United States ship Portsmouth, capt. M'Neil, but the British commanding officer detained the prize and paid capt. M'N. a sum of money in lieu of her!

The following are copies of the Norfolk papers, as Extracts by a late arrival from Jamaica.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) Aug. 13.

In the Carter, Sprightly, which arrived on Sunday from Charleston, was brought one of the principal mutineers belonging to the Herminie frigate—he has been long confined in America, and has been given up to suffer the punishment due to his crimes.

We understand that in St. Domingo differences between Rigaud and Toussaint have arose to a very great height; Rigaud's party is in possession of the Mole and Port-de Paix; his army and Toussaint's are encamped opposite each other, between Port L'Acul and Petit Gouave. Intelligence received on board the Surprise frigate, cruising off Jamaica, mentions the death of Rigaud as a thing certain.

Aug. 14. The Spanish Felucca Sta. Rosa, prize to his Majesty's ship Solebay, arrived yesterday. She is from Cadiz bound to La Vera Cruz, laden with quick-silver, and sailed from the former port on the 10th July. The accounts given by the captain of her, is that on the 24th June, the French fleet joined the Spanish at Carthagena, and proceeded for Cadiz, which port they entered on the morning the Felucca sailed, in number 42 sail of the line, and 18 frigates, and smaller vessels. The French fleet under the command of Truguet, Minister of Marine, and the Spanish under Admiral Malbredo.—The English fleet under Adm. Earl St. Vincent's had proceeded up the Mediterranean to join Lord Nelson's. The other news he brings, that the French is entirely routed out of Italy, but that on the Rhine they are victorious. Buonaparte by his accounts, appears to be entirely successful, having established himself in Syria with an army of 40,000 Arabs.

PORTSMOUTH, July 24.

Arrived La Suffisante, and Haarlem men of war: the latter brings word that in coming down the Mediterranean from Naples, in company with the Centaur, they fell in with 3 frigates and two Corvettes, who each fired a single shot, and surrendered: their names are the Alcide, of 26 guns, 450 men, with an admiral's flag. Juno, 44 guns, 560 men, Courageux, 44 guns, 500 men, and two corvetts, of 16 guns each; two cutters were in sight, and the fleet within hearing, when the above captures were made.

The next day they joined Lord Keith, who detached the combined fleet, and sent the Penelope cutter to reconnoitre, who was attacked by a French brig, which she beat off, but a Spanish frigate coming down, she was taken, Lord Keith attacked the rear of the enemy, consisting of 58 ships, the English only 34;—the action commenced at 7 in the morning, and at 2 o'clock continued with great fury; the Haarlem's officers could then only see 28 of the enemy, several of which had lost their topmasts—the action was fought on the 24th instant.

RALEIGH, September 17, 1799.

On Wednesday last, the Governor of the State left this place on his way to Philadelphia, in order to take on him the important duties of his mission to France.

Previous to his departure, the inhabitants of Raleigh and of its neighbourhood, met and caused him to be presented with an address, of which the following is a copy. To His Excellency Wm R. DAVIE, Governor, Captain-General and Commander in Chief in and over the State of North-Carolina: SIR,

The inhabitants of the city of Raleigh and of its vicinity, learn with concern, that you leave this place in the morning, preparatory to your departure from the State, and in order to take on you the duties of the appointment to which they understand you have been lately called by the Government of the United States, as one of the mission to the Republic of France.—However well pleased and gratified they may be at this distinguished mark of the high trust & confidence reposed in you by your country; and however ready they feel individually to declare their full and entire reliance on your long tried and acknowledged patriotism and talents; yet they would do a violence to their feelings were they to suffer this opportunity to pass away without a declaration of their regret at the necessity of your absence, and without an expression of the affectionate and respectful sentiments with which they are persuaded, all who have the pleasure of knowing you behold your departure.—That the great national object which thus calls you from government, your family and your friends in Carolina, may be fully and happily accomplished, is their most sincere and devout wish.—And they beg you to be assured, that as friends and fellow citizens, they not only feelingly regret your departure from among them, but offer up their sincere and best wishes for your Personal safety, health and prosperity during your absence; and for your speedy and happy return to the bosom of your country, to your family and to your friends.

Signed by appointment and under the direction of the inhabitants present.

John Haywood, Wm Polk, Wm White, J. Craven, S. Haywood.

Raleigh, Sept. 10. To which the Governor returned an answer as follows: To the inhabitants of the City of Raleigh and its vicinity.

I thank you for the polite and friendly address with which you have been pleased to honour me; such an expression of the affectionate esteem of my fellow-citizens, could not fail to excite the most lively sensation.—The importance of the object of my journey, and the hope of being more serviceable to my country, could alone reconcile me to an absence from the duties of my office, or even a departure from the State at this interesting crisis. I shall leave the city of Raleigh, where every moment has been marked with the most respectful attention to me, with sincere regret; and I beg you to be assured, that I feel with proper sensibility the interest you are pleased to take in my welfare.

Be assured as to accept of my warmest wishes for your individual happiness and prosperity, and believe me with great respect and esteem.

Your most obedient servant, WILLIAM R. DAVIE.

Raleigh, Sept. 11.

On the morning of his departure, the officers of the cavalry, together with a number of their troops, met at the State-House square, where being joined by the inhabitants of this city, the officers of the federal troops remaining in town, and by a number of other gentlemen, they waited on the Governor at the hour of his setting out, and having escorted him four miles on his journey, they alighted and bid him an affectionate adieu.

We learn that the YELLOW FEVER is in Newbern—a person direct from that place informs us that on Tuesday and Wednesday last, inclusive, 16 persons died—Mrs Cradick has lost during the last week, the whole of her children 5 in number.—The inhabitants are flying in every direction.

We hear also, that the same disease is raging violently in Washington.

HALIFAX, Sept. 19.

We understand that Governor Davie will leave this place for Philadelphia on Friday or Saturday next, & it is expected that he will sail for Europe, with the Chief Justice, Mr. Elworth, about the first of next month.

WILMINGTON, October 3.

We are authorized to state, that Benjamin Smith, Esq. Speaker of the Senate, was to assume the duties of the Executive of this State, on the 12th inst. and that he had been requested by Gov. Davie to repair to the City of Raleigh for that purpose.

By capt. Butler arrived at Baltimore from Port Republican, we learn that the war between Toussaint and Rigaud is pursued with the utmost severity—that each has offered a premium for the head of the other—that Toussaint has 9000 men surrounding the Mole, intended to take it by storm—that privateers cruise against the vessels of each partizan adherents, who never give quarters—that Toussaint put 200 mulattoes to death, who were surprized by one of his scouting parties—and that a war of extermination appears to be the order of the day in that devoted land.

MRS. HALL,

I SEE in your last paper a very scandalous advertisement put in against me by David Mims jun. concerning losing saddle bags, I deny Lee on stealing Mr. Mims bags, or any of my family, as much as Mr. Mims wud, and if I am a mid to gambel I can gambel on my own money, Mr. Mims bags was not in my hole nor in my car, I wud thank Mr. Mims for the future to keep himself sober when he cols at my nose and tak care of bags and him self; no man can ever say, that ever cold at my hole and put any thing in my car, or in any of my family, that ever lost 6 pence; no, nor never shall. BENJAMIN ROWELL.
