Any person willing to purchase is requested to look at the Lands and not take the report of any person respecting them. They will call on Mr. John Hanley, senior, who will show the situation of the Plantations, as he is well acquainted.

Sixty Dollars Reward,

WILL be given by the subscriber for delivery to himself or his Overseer at Belvedere, TONEY, MARGARET and NANNY, who have absconded some months past—And for proving to conviction their being harbored by any white person. One third of the same for delivery and proof of each or either—For delivery alone Ten Dollars each, and five dollars each for proof of being harbored by a person of colour.

TONEY is a short well set fellow, about forty years of age, Runners and was formerly well known as a boatman—He has been seen frequently about Dillison's up the North well River, and I am informed is very probably harboured by some of Major Moore's negroes.

MARGARET is an old wench of a yellowish complexion, has been hired about town for many years, usually stayed at Mr. Keddie's premises and frequented the Sound very much.

NANNY is young and small, formerly lived with Mrs. Purvance at the Sound, and is supposed to be harbored in that neighbourhood.

BENJA. SMITH.

October 8.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber a negro man named HARDY, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, yellow complexion, stout and well made, small hands and makes more use of his left hand than the right, a scar or mark on his right fore finger, and bushy head—he carried with him an oznaburg shirt and trousers, homespun shirts, overalls, and dark coloured jacket, nearly 20 years of age, he formerly belonged to Mr. Mathburn on New-River.—I will give a reward of 15 dollars if taken up in Bladen or Hanover, on his being delivered to me at my plantation.

ALEXANDER STRAHAN.

October 1, 1801.

RAN away without the least provocation, from the Hermitage, a few days since, a Negro fellow named TELLEMICHUS, commonly called Marcus, is a well made fellow, civil and pliable, of a black complexion, and is about 5 feet 9 inches high, speaks plain English—his wife is the property of Thomas Hill, Esq. named Olive, who I am informed is gone up to Chatham county with her mistress, and it is probable the fellow is gone up there after his wife, and may be harbored about Fayetteville or on Mr. Hill's plantation, or some where near Wilmington.

I will give any person a reward of Twenty Dollars who will apprehend the said fellow and bring him to me at the Hermitage.
