Ten Dollars Reward.

ABSENTED himself from my service on Friday Evening last, a Negro Man, named ANSWER, about 5 feet 10 inches high, 26 years old, handsome and well made, has whiskers, and holes in his ears in which he sometimes wears rings, a small scar over each eye, rather light complexioned, is Country born, very plausible and artful. He went off without my least provocation, but I believe under an apprehension of being sold. He is well known in Fayetteville where he was raised; not having a wife at Capt. Tuman's plantation, down the river, I expect he is thereabouts. The above described slave is outlawed; but the publication of the proclamation is suspended until next Tuesday, when, if he does not previously surrender himself, a reward will be offered for destroying him.
Masters of vessels and others are cautioned against harbouring, employing or carrying him away; for proof against any person so offending, I will give a reward of Twenty Dollars; or the above reward for bringing him to me or securing him in jail so that I get him.
ALLMAND HALL.
October 14.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber in Wake County, North-Carolina, on the 9th of March 1805, a Negro Man about 22 years of age by the name of TAP-LEY, who will pass for a freeman and I expect will alter his name. I was informed by a Negro Man of Itham Blakes in Fayetteville, that he has seen him frequently, on the River between Fayetteville and Wilmington and in Wilmington, and that the said Runaway had been several voyages to the West-Indies in some of the Wilmington vessels, and is now supposed to be about Wilmington. He and Mr.
Blake's Negro being long acquainted was the reason of his going down that course.
The said Negro may be known by a nice examination, on the chin may be seen a small scar, and I have heard since he left me that his leg was broke when he was small; he is a tall well built mulatto fellow, it was supposed that a white man was his father, was born and raised in Orange county in this State. Any person who will take up the said fellow & confine him in any jail so that I get him, shall be well rewarded by me.

the latter occasioned by a burn; and former-
