Wm. NUTT, Sh'ff.

July 19.

To the Freeholders of New-Hanover County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

INFLUENCED by the solicitations of my friends in different parts of the county, I offer myself a Candidate at the ensuing Election, to represent you in the Senate of the next General Assembly.

I am induced to address you on this occasion, from the circumstance of it having been falsely reported by some malicious person, that "my vote on the passage of the Judiciary Bill, was given from sinister motives." Although my friends may not deem a political refutation of this report essential to my political interest; yet justice to my own character, and regard for the good opinion of my countrymen generally, which I have ever been ambitious to cherish and deserve, impel me at least to declare, that it is not founded in truth. My vote on the Judiciary Bill, was the result of an opinion carefully and deliberately formed, that an alteration in our Court system was necessary, and would be productive of public benefit—but nevertheless had I received instructions from my constituents on that subject, which I in vain endeavoured to procure, my vote would have been governed thereby; for I conceive that the will of the Representative, should in such case, yield to the will of the people.

It remains for me to assure you, gentlemen, that should I be honored with a majority of your suffrages, I shall endeavour to discharge the important trust so as to merit your confidence and promote our common interest.

I have the honor to be
Your most obedient servant,
RICHARD NIXON.

20 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber in Wilmington about six weeks ago, a Negro Woman named about twenty-three years old, five feet five or seven inches high, slender made, and likely; dresses very genteelly, and generally wears a blue handkerchief on her head, which comes down over her eyes on account of their being very weak; she is light complected, was brought up in the family of Mr. Daniel Mallett, is a tolerable good seamstress and is well acquainted with house work.

I have reason to believe she is in Fayetteville or Raleigh, where she has some relations.

I will give the above reward for delivering her to me or the jailor of this place, or Ten Dollars for confining her in any jail in the state.
