the different adminilftrations of our gov- $\|^{\text {b }}$ eroment, It is by an examination of fheir eroment It is byan eximination of iheir feveral fytems of policy, zind their relo-and commercial purfuits were encouraged and provefted, our public credit was unimpairedted and and if the peace of the countr Was preferved with u factifieing is ho not : itien we may faity atribure to athat adminittration wifdomjintegrity and pairi and folly, at leat io the prefert adminif paralized the indultry of the hoflbadman the mechanic and the arift dried up the Curce of public revenue, hazarded the poase of the country, and degraded the ernoient to the imputation of having fa crificed lis independence; to the inffuence of a foreign power!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:
This Day, at II 12 aclock, the Prenident of the Uniced Statés communicated, by Mr. Colet, his Secretary, the following Mkssane to both Houses of Congreess: To the Stinate and Hoare of Ropre If would have been a source, fettow-cirizens, ione from Europe had enabled me to iuform you, that the belligerent nations, whose diss egard of neutral rights bas been so deutruc-- ive to our commeree, find become awakened to the duty and true police of revoking thefr inrightorous edicte. Thit no means miight Ge omitted to produce this salutary effect, 1 lost no time in availing myself of tife act adlost no time in availing myself or the act antorising a suspenion, in whole or in pat, of the several embargo laws. Our ministers at London and Parit, were entrusted to ex. plan to the respective governments ithere, our disposition to exercise the authority in our disposition to exercise (her anthority in sueh manner as would pritheraw the pretext on which the aggresions were originally foainded, and open the way for a renewal of thet commercill imercourse which, itwas obstructed. As esch of thove governments had pledged a readinens ta concur in renouncing a measure which reached its adnouncing a measure which leached its ad-veraary through the incoiteetable rights of neutratis only, and as the measure had been awsumed by each as a retaliation for an a yerted acquiescence in the aggreestions of the other, it was reasonably expected that the de. easion would have been seized by both for evincing the sincerity of their profesions and for retroring to the commercee of tine $\mathbf{y}$. with a relerence to their different circumstances, and to the condition annexed by lav to the executive power of suspension, requir ing a degree of security to our commerce, ing a degree of security foour cominerce. decrees of France. Matead of a pledge therefore of a suspension of the embargo as to her in case of such repen, it was presymed that a sufficient inducement might be found in other cossiderations, and particularly in our just domands by pue belligerent, and a yefoual hy the other. in the relations between this ot her and the United Sutem. To Great this other and the United Sutem. To Grea Britain. Whose power on the ocean is so as cendant, it wer deemed not inconeistent with that condition, to state expliciuly that on her reicinding her orders io relation to the United States, thefr crade would be opened to her, and remain shut to her enemy, in From France no answer has been received nor any indication that the requinie change in her decrecs iv contemplated at her decrees of the proposition to Great: Britain was the less to be doubied, as her or: dere of counil had not only been referred for their vindication to an acquiescence on the part of the United States no longer to be part of the United States no longer to be protended, but so the atrangensent proposed, whilst it resited the iflegal decrees of Fraico, inivolved morenver aubsantialif, the precise adrantages profesedty aimed at by the British ordert. The arrangement has aiterthetish ordert. The arrangement has acvich less been rejccted. This candid and liberal experiment haviag' thuo failed, and ao other evant tiaving obeur. red on Which t/ su ponsonof the embargo by the Execurive was authorised; it necesarily the io return for the privitions fimposed by the measure, and which ofr felloin-cilizesa in evenerat have borne with pestriotism, it bas bed the important effects of saving our has bad the isportant effects of saving our mariners and our vant' mercantite property, the deleosive and pfovisiofiat mentures called for ly the occation. Ithis demoditated to enes the ntecestity of uniting in support of the later nodit the rights of hieir conitity s sind has thas livips frastrated thore usurpatinas. asd spliationt, whileth, if revistech, invalved ciple of our national indeprndence.
Under a continuance of the belligerent mesaures, which io defince of fie lawt which coasecrate the rights of oentrals averspread the ocean with dinger, it will fest wilh the the ocean with danger, it will Test with be bent adppted to such $A$ state of thinges sud briaging twith themy as they dor foffin evely tituents, my coofidence is atreng benec that in forming ibis decision, they will, witb an unerring regard to the emential rights and unetring regard to the enentital rights and interests of the nation, weigh and compare the painfol alternatives puifot the painfol alternatives out of which a choice is to be made. Nar ahould do jutice to the virues which orrother ock ocsions havelnidin-od tie chitiecter of nor did not ehierish an equal confidence, thate the alherriative chosen, whateverit mivy be will be mainted withnll the fortiturde apd pan be maintaned with all the fortitude end pan triotism which the crisis ought to lispires The documents; containfigg the corrath against our commerce, with the inatructions given to our Minituters at London and Paris, The communicationis $n$ in their lant sensioti, Explained the posture in which the close of sho discussion relatitive to the prtack by a Britith ship of war on the frigate Chosapeake, teft a subject or whict the nation bad manifeated so horionble en 3ensibitity, Every view of what had pased authorivel a belief that immediate steps would be taken by the Britith government to requitre what thad not been provided forriy in the special misson. It is found that no the special missont It is found that no steps live been tatien for the purpose. On steps trave been taken for the purpose. On the contrary it vill be teen, in the docunents taid before you that -hary, which obstructed the adjustment, it -ary, which obitructed adhe adjustmente is now brought into tonnection vith the disưnct and irrelative ordersin council. The instracand irrelative ordersin council. The instruc tions whith bad been given to our miniter at London, with a view to facilitate, it neees. sary, tile reparation claimed by the United States, are included in the document

Our relation's with the other powers of Europe have undergone nomaterial changessince your last sesfion. The important since your last sesion. The important nee. gociations with Spain, which had been alter pately suspenced and resumed, necessanil and inleresting crisio which distinguishles her miernatiituation.

Whit the Batbary powers sec continue in baremony, with the exception of an uniustifis. ble proceeding of the Dey of Algiers iowards our consul to that regency. Its character and circumstances are now laid before yob, and will enable goe to de ide and will enable you to decide how far it may either now or hereatter call for any measires either now or hereater cair for any measures pot within the limits of the executive authoWity our Indian neighbots, the public pence has been oteadily maintained. Some mstances of individual wrong haye, ns at other times, taken place, but in no wise im. plieating the will of the nation. Beyond the bamas, have delivered up (of trial and punish bamas, have deivered up or riai and puniahe nemt, Individual) from among themselves. tecused of murdering eltizenn of the United Stats. 3tats. On this side of the Misisippis, the Creeks are exerling theriselves ta arrest of. Creeks are exering temseives la arrest of. fendera of the same kind, and ftie Choctaws have manilfested their readiniess and desire for amicable and just arrangentents, respecty ing depredations committed by disorderl) ing depredations commitued oy disorderry pervions of their triber. And generally, from ennvietion that we consider them as a part of ourceives, and cherish with sincerity their rights and interest righis and interests, the atuchment of the Indian tribes is gaining strenglil daily, ither. tend endigi and will amply reabite us for the jastiec andid friendahip practived towarde them. Husvancing amoong theme, more rapidly with lie Southern than northiern tribeb, from circumSouther of soif and zlimate, and of the two great do ship of ite United Sates, and to be identified with us in lawr and with us in lawr and government, th auch progressife manher at we thall think beat. In eosecequence of he approprintions of the last session of congress, for the security of last session of congress, for the security of our sea-port towns and harbours, tuch works our sea-pon torms and harbourb, tach works of defence have been erected as eememe to be eilled by the situation of the several pheces, their the expence indieated thatce, amount of the appropriation. These works wilt be tine propriation. These works wirb be linished in the tourse of the present season, except at the course of the present seaton, except at New-York nad New.Orleank, where most was of the last appropriation has been expended on the former place; yet wome farther view will be summitted to congras for renderine. enterprise. A viev of what has been done at the severl the several places, and of whativ proposed to be done, shall be communicated ar soon as be dane, shall be communieated ar soon as the teveral reportorere received.Of he guin-boats authorised by the aer of to build onty one liundred and inree in the presentyeat:- These, with those before pos sessed, are sofficient for the harboris and wha. tens mont exponed, aifd tite revidue will re. quire litte time for their construction, when it thall be deemed neceisiry.
Under the act of the latt session for raíp. ing an ndditional military force, so many of: Ing an wdditional military force, so many of ficers were imminedisiely spointed tis veife pecessery for carrying on the business of ref pel cruiting, and in proportion as it advinced ethere shave beet added. We have reteot alhough sueh returns have not yet been re serived no enable me to presebs ment of the numbere engeged.
I hare not thought it necesuary, in the under the laws paised for that purpote. For the ensuing season, howeverit they will by Yeguited to bo in readinest, thould their ser-) vioe be wanted. Some small and specill vioe be wanted. Some simall sand specill detitcimexits have been netesiary to maintain detucianeuts have been necesiary to maintain tie lewne of the embarge, on that portion of our northern frontiers our northern frontierg wblich offcrear peculina facilfies for enasion. But these were replaced assoon as it could be done, by bodies of new reeruits. By the aid of these, and of the armed vessels called inte service in of ther quarters, the spiritit ofdisohedienne und abuse which manitested itself early, and with abue which manitested itself early, and with sensible effoct, while we were unpprepared meet it, has been eonsiderably repressed. Considesing the extroordinary characte of tho times in which we live, our attentior hould unremittingly be fixed on the iafety fous country, For a people who aro free and armed militia is their best uecurity. It s therefore incumbent on us, at every meeting, to retevise the conditith of the mititia, arid powerful enemy, it every point of our terri tories exposed to invanion: Some of the states have paid a laudable attention to this object : but every degree of neglect who be found amoog others. Congress ilone having the powier to protuce an uniforge havite or preparation in this great organ of defences the interests which they so deeply feel in he interests which they so deeply feel in their own and their country's security; wilt present this as among the most important Under the acts of March 11, and Apri! 23, respecting arms, the difficully of procur ing them from abrotd daring the present 6 . tuation and dispoitions of Europe; induced us ta direct out whole efforts to the means of internal supply. The pubtic factories have therefore been enlarged, addititonal machineries erected; and in proportion as ar ififers can be found or formed, their effect slready more than doubled, máy be increas. ed, so as to keep pace with the yearly increase of the militia. The annual sums approphithe encouragement of private factories of torms $;$ and contracts have been entered into with individual undertakeres, to nearly the amount of the firat year's appropriation, The Iulpention of our foreigi com. merce, produced by the injuffice of the merce, producaws, and the confequent belligerent powers, beligerent powers, and the confequent loffes and facrifices of our fellow. citizens, are lubje $A_{s}$ of our juft concern. The fituation into which we have thus been Foreed, has impelied us to apply a portion of our induiftry and capital to ibternal manufatures and improvementes extent of this converfion is daily increasing; and little doubt remains that the eltablioments formed and formíng, will, under the aufpices of cheaper, materials and fubianane whe inceling of lahar fonm iaxation with us, and of proceling duties and prohibition!, become permaneat, The commerce with the Indiaps 100, within our own boundaries, is likely to whitin our owa boundaries, is likely to receive abundant atiment from the fame receive abundant aliment from te came interhal refource, and will fecure to them interhal refource, and wise pecvivilization, peace and the pregrefs of cin undiflurbed by pratices hoffile io both. The accounts of the receipts and ex. penditures during the year ending on the penirteenth day of September laff, being nor yet made up, a correa fatement will In the mean timie it is afcer thined theafury. In the mean tume it is afcerained that the receipis have amounted to near eighicen millions of dollars; which with the eight militions and an half in the preafury at the beginning of the year, have onatiled us afier meeting the curreat demands, and Interef incurred, to pay two milions iliree huindred thoufand dollars of the prin ciree huindred of our furided debt, and left us in in the trealury on that day near founteén mil. lions of doliant. Ot thefe, five millions thisec hundred and fifty shoufand dollars gill be neceffiay to pay what will be due on He firf day of January fext, ybich will domplete the reimburfement of the eight per cent. flock. Thefo paymens, with thnfe made in the fix years and an half precéding, will have estinguified thirys-Alsee millidus five thundred and thiry-three millidgs five hundred and sighteen thoufand dolars of the prineipal eighteen thouland dolars of the prineipal of the fonded debt, being the whole which could be gaid or purchafed within the lithis of the low and of out contralls, and Will have 1 it pricipal hus fromarge two millions of dollars of ibiereft, and added that fom annually to the dif fofable furplus. The probable accumulation of The firptufter or revaniue beyoud whar can be applied to the payment of thy pablic de5̄, whenever the freedon and fafey of our commerce fiall be reflored, merits the confidetation of Congrefy. Shall it he unprodualve in the public vanis? Shall the revenie be reducedl or flall ir not the revenue be reducedl or thatl ir nos tather be appropriaved to the improve andents of roads, canalo, riverf, education and union, under the powets which Con: greis may alreedy poffeff, or fuch amend mient of the donflitution as may be approved by the fates? While uncertain of the courfe of thinge the tiate may be adpowert nerelfay for a tytem of impg the ment, bould that be thought bef. Availing my felf of this, the lail occa-fign which will occur of addreffing the fon which will occur of addreffing the (wo Houfes of Legilature at their mecting, I cannot onilt the exprelfion of tay fincefe gratitude, for the repeated proofs of coilfidence manifffled to me, by themfelversand their predeceffors fince my call 10 the adminilliation, and the many indulgencieisi Experienced at their hands.The fame graveful acknowledgements ure due to fi.y fellow-citizens generally. whofo fupport has beep my great oncour. agement under all embarraftments. In the imafaion of thetr bufthers, I cannot have efcaped error. It is iocident to eccaped error. It is iocident to our impeffea nature. Phil 1 may fay with imitr my errors have been of the iad wiftandiag. not of intention, and that the adrancement of their rightsand interefis has beed the conflant motive for every meafure, $\mathrm{O}_{\mathrm{n}}$ thefe. confiderations I tolicit thefe confiderations I tolicit their indalgence. Looking forward with ansiety to their future deftinies, I trift that in their Cleads charaQ er, unfloken by difficolties, is ineir love of tiberty, obectiente to law. and fupport of the public aathorities, , fee a fure guarantee of the permanence of our Republic-and retiring from the charge of their aftairs, carry with me the.confolation of a firm perfosfon that toaven tas to tore forour beleyct Coun try, long ages tore come of profperity and happinefs. happinefs.

1H: JEFFERSON.
1808.

CONGRESS.

Menater Novrinize 10.
Mr Giles offcred the following retolutions tneisage as relates io the severn smbat's Iaws, be referred to a select commitee vilh instructions to examine and, report, whether any forther meavures are now necensary to enforct a due observance thereof during their continuanct ; arid abo whether any further modification thereofbs expedientarthigtinis: and hat such committee have leare to repore by bill or otherwise.
On making this motion, Mr. Giles obsertr ed, that as the retolution he had of moving, respecting the embarg the hono intended only as at enquiry into that subject, which was deemed important by all, and if to attention ; and as it did not commitit the Se aate upon any point in relation to those lawn, he boped that the committee might be now ${ }^{\text {appointed. }}$ Mr, Goed might not be acted reited that the motion Which Mr. Gites agreed.
Mr. Smith, of Mc, ghotion of ad. submited the follow. motion for consideration : Resoled, That a commill 10. enquire whether ant , and if be appointed The senare have appointed the Rev. Mr.
Ellioth, chaplain. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The following, gentlemen were named the speatier, on the committer fetped tively, tipenike, on the committeer respeoWell, W. Alston, Eppess, Smilie, Tallmadge, Commerce $\mathcal{B}$ Mgampactures. Mearis. Newton M.Creery, Cutts, Dana, Marion, MumCord, and Porter.
Cains. Messrs. Holmies, Pikin, Seaver, Johning, Humphrey., Brown aid Euter.
Public Lande. Mesin Goodwyn, Russell, Boyd, Ely, Biibo, and Distriet of Columblio. Messrs. Levih, Van Horae, Southard, Blackledge, Rea, (Pen.) Revisal and urfinithed Clopion, Van Renaseloer ansintas-Messas. Alcoumts Menseloer and Durell. N R. Moore, Stedmas
And Miloor, and Millor.
The Speaker faid before the house a memorial from the legiflature of to Minder teritory, praying an evtenasion of flie time of payment for public lands, Re. Referred, os teritory, praying an extension of the time of payment or public tind, ke. Referred, on motion of Mr. Poindexter, to the comimiluee motion of Mr. P. of publicic lands.
Fire thousand copies of the documents ac. companying the meesige of the President, The Houte wasiticn cleared and the doors cored for the purpose of read cored for the purpose of rending the con dential part of the President's mesage. Ater the doors were opzned, a resolution yesterday latd on the table by M. Rhea. T. Cor appointing a committee of Post Offices and Poot Ronds, to convist of one member from each spate, was thkertup and agreed to.
Thirada, Neflember. 10 . Thuraday, Notember EMBARGO.
Immediately on the mereting of the House, Mr. Clittenden said he roue with corsiderable diffidence to offer to the House a mesolution on the subject of the embargo.Having winewed the ieeings beretofone exeiked by a similar proposition at the last ses-nion, he said he wrould ausure gentlemer ' ihat he bad no object in view but to bentemer that feet before the House, and extite a fair and liberal discussion. He hat toped that the situation of our alling woutd ere thin have authorised the remoral- Cothe embarga. Disappointed in thit, he feltit a duty which he owed to his conttigents nad the nation, to endeavor to clicit as exprestion of the opinion of the Houte, to preyent rrinous apecolaions, and to Felieve the nation frome apecolaions, and to retieve the ation from auppense. The measure bad now been in suapense. The measure bad now beeb in operation wo or eleven monthy and heliad

[^0]
[^0]:    -

