

J. T. Printer, Worcester, [May 1st]

THE WILMINGTON GAZETTE.

[NUMBER 702]

WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY JUNE 19, 1810.

[14TH YEAR.]

To Printers of Newspapers.

THERE will speedily be issued from the press, a "History of Printing in America," &c. which among other things, will contain an account of all the Newspapers printed in British America, previous to the commencement of the revolution in 1775; and the author wishes to add a list of all the Newspapers printed in the United States, as well as in the British, French and Spanish dominions, on this continent, and in the West Indies, on the first day of January, 1810.

With a view to enable him to complete this list, he requests the printers of newspapers will do him the favor to forward one or two of their papers, addressed to "J. T. Printer, Worcester, Mass."—And in order that this intelligence may become generally known, he begs they will give this advertisement one or two insertions in their respective papers, which will be considered as an additional obligation. If such publishers of newspapers, or other gentlemen, as have newspapers printed in British or Spanish America, on the 1st of January, will do him the favor to forward one of each kind, as above, they will render him a very acceptable service. It is intended to insert in the History of Printing, above mentioned, the titles of the papers, the names of the printers, the towns and states in which they are printed, and the periods of their publication, daily, weekly, &c.

Publishers of Magazines and periodical works, other than newspapers, are also requested to favor the author with the title of such publications, the name of the publishers, and an account of the periods when, and the places where, they are printed.

FRESH GOODS.

Just received and now opening at my store, in Market Street, next door below Mr. William Mitchell's, a well selected supply of SEASONABLE GOODS, which I will sell low for cash only.

The small capital to which I have been restricted, in the prosecution of my business, renders it indispensable that I should at all times possess it in some form or other, to that end I have determined, and have for some years adhered to the determination of keeping a real cash store; I had hoped this circumstance was so generally known that the pain of denying credit at this time would have been completely obviated; this not being the case, and the unpleasantry of refusing its frequently to persons of whose ability and punctuality there can be no doubt, and with whom were my plan of business different, it would give me peculiar pleasure to have accounts, induces me earnestly to request the discontinuance of all such applications in future.

JESSE WINGATE.

SIR FRANCIS BURDETT.

The following is Sir Francis Burdett's letter to the Speaker of the House of Commons, on the subject of his warrant. It was laid laid before that body on the 9th of April.

"Sir.—When I was returned in due form, by the electors of Westminster, they imagined they had chosen me as their trustee in the House of Commons, to maintain the laws and liberties of the land. Having accepted that trust, I never will betray it.

"I have also, as a dutiful subject, taken an oath of allegiance to the King, to obey his laws; and I never will consent, by any act of mine, to obey any set of men, who, contrary to those laws, shall, under any pretence whatsoever, assume the power of giving them power to destroy the people.

"Your warrant, sir, I believe you know to be illegal—I know it to be so. To superior force I must submit; I will not, and dare not incur the danger of continuing voluntarily to make one of any association, or set of men, who shall assume illegally the whole power of the realm, and who have no more right to take myself, or any one of my constituents, by force, than I or they possess to take any one of those who are now guilty of this usurpation; and I would condescend to accept the meanest office that would vacate my seat, being more desirous of getting out of my present association, than other men may be desirous of getting profitably into it.

"Sir, this is not a letter in answer to a vote of thanks; it is an answer to a vote of a very different kind. I know not what to call it; but since you have begun this correspondence with me, I must beg you to read this my answer to those under whose orders you have commenced it.

"I remain, Sir,

"Your most obedient humble servt,

"FRANCIS BURDETT.

"Piccadilly, April 6, 1810.

April 13.

The Speaker acquainted the house that he had received a letter signed Francis Burdett, on which he wished to know the pleasure of the house. On a cry of read it read! he read as follows:

"To the Right Honorable Charles Abbott,
Speaker of the House of Commons.

"Sir, You having on or about the 9th day of April inst. as Speaker of the House of Commons, forcibly broke and entered the dwelling house of me, the undersigned Francis Burdett, situate in Piccadilly, in the parish of St. James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex: and having also, on the said 9th day of April, caused me to be apprehended, and unlawfully committed to a certain prison called his Majesty's Tower of London, and to be there imprisoned, and as yet kept and detained in prison there, without any reasonable or probable cause whatever, I do therefore, according to the form of statute in such case made and provided, hereby give you notice, that I shall, at or soon after the expiration of one calendar month, from the time of your being served with this notice, cause a bill to be filed against you in his majesty's court of king's bench at Westminster, and a writ of summons to be therewith issued out of his majesty's said court of king's bench at Westminster, against you, at my suit, for these said trespasses and false imprisonment, and shall proceed against you thereupon according to law.

I am &c.

"FRANCIS BURDETT.

"Dated the 12th day of April, 1810."

Letter from Sir Francis Burdett, to his constituents, the electors of Westminster.

Tower, April 20, 1810.

GENTLEMEN—If any thing could increase, or confirm, the constant resolution of my life, never to betray the confidence you have placed in me, it is the kindness and affection, which your letter of the 17th inst. testifies to me; and the wisdom, and propriety of your conduct at the late meeting.

A scrupulous adherence to the common law of the land, and the wise provisions of the ancient statutes, chieftaincy of that
