LONDON, November 23
The dispatches recently received from... Wellington, are dated at Rueda, 7th... at his head quarters (being there) where... expected to be joined by General Hill.
The French army of Portugal has once... more advanced from the Douro upon Val... adolid which was evacuated October 29th... The Force of the enemy at the point are... estimated at 45,000 infantry and 5000 ca... valry; that army was rendered thus formi... dable by reinforcements from France—... Marquis Wellington had 22,000 infantry... and 1,500 horse.

The advanced guard of marshal Sonit... entered Aranjuez on 20th, whilst General... Hill was evacuating that place. King Jo... seph was advancing rapidly upon Madrid... with a separate corps—He entered Cuenca... at the head of 8900 men. A French co... ps entered Madrid on the evening of the 8th... November.

This morning's paper states that the... British Squadron off the Hook consists of... the St. Domingo, Admiral Warren, Bra... gon and Poitiers of 74 guns, and four or... five frigates and three smaller vessels of... war. It is stated that they have taken our... vessels 5 miles within the Hook?

A ship just arrived from London... brings the Prince Regent's speech and a... confirmation of the defeat of Bonaparte's... army—The Russians carrying every thing... before them, 25,000 of the French army... surrendered at discretion."

Capt. Pease of the schooner Charles... from your port, arrived yesterday. He... no ships of war, though we have... for some days past quite blockaded... several, and many injured and others... vessels taken; but it would appear... a great deal of importance to this morning... which I refer you." [Unfortunately his... N. York papers did not come in the mail.]

ANOTHER EMBARGO.

Accounts from Fayetteville state that... an expectation prevailed there that the... next mail would bring the sad tidings of... another embargo. Should this ever take... place, its effects will be most sensibly felt... particularly by the people residing in, and... adjacent to our sea coasts.—Owing to pec... uliar circumstances the articles of grain... had commanded a profitable price while... those of Naval Stores would surely get a... purchaser at any price. A steatmand... and increase of price for these, however... hold out the promise of relief for the... of our fellow citizens, whose port de... pends on the sale of Naval stores. But... their gleam of hope was lying up in... down coming prospects of our times, ... ministrars with ano... and dilates all
