Subscriber, preparing to offers for sale the lot he at the south east corner of Princess streets running 66 feet and 110 feet on the latter with a house (which has not been built) and all other improvements $800 dollars in cash were paid for 1810 to J. R. London Esquire, and cash have since been paid to Mr. all the builder for materials and work-ship exclusive of sums paid to Fisher and others. 40,000 bricks were used in foundation chimneys &c. per bill. The frame is an exceeding good one enclosed with boards edge to edge upon which are laid the best of juniper shingles except in the piazza where it is weatherboarded. The fence is probably equal to any in this part of the country being made entirely of heart lumber jointed and capped. As no part of the house nor fence has been painted and only the lower part of the house lathed it is not necessary that any dependence should be placed on this statement—it is expected the whole will be examined by the person wishing to purchase.

PRICE if paid before the first day of October next $1700. Approved notes or exchange on the northward would be received, discount being allowed for the time to run.

WILL be given for apprehending and lodging in any Jail in this state, so that I get him, my mulatto man named—Abram—otherwise Abram Patrick or Abram W. Patrick, he is well known about the Town of Wilmington, on Levingston Creek in Brunswick County, on the River through the County of Bladen, in and about the Town of Fayetteville, and on Rockfish Creek, in the County of Cumberland, where he was raised with Mrs. Kirkpatrick his former owner. Abram is remarkable for being a tall man with rather thin visage, hair fine and inclined to curl about the neck, with a scar as from a Bite under the left cheek bone, and for conversing upon mechanics on which he is very speculative—he is a good Mill Wright and House Carpenter, and is particularly expert at putting water on the wheel of a Saw or other Mill—he can write and will probably attempt to pass himself as a free man—persons are warned how they are imposed on, as in case of employing him without permission, the penalties of the Law will be enforced. Abram has been out since the 6th day of June and has been seen in the neighborhood of Mr. John Waddle's in Bladen County—should he come in and deliver himself up within the course of this month his offence shall be pardoned otherwise I shall take the necessary steps to outlaw him.
