Bank of Cape Fear,
February 1814.

THE Directors of this Bank having resolved to increase the Capital Stock thereof, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars in shares of one hundred dollars each.

Notice is hereby given that Books will be opened at the Bank in Wilmington for subscription for Five Hundred Shares of New Stock under the superintendance of George Hooper, John Hogg, A. Lazarus, E. Bridge, junr, and James Dickson, and at the Agency Office in the Town of Fayetteville for Five Hundred Shares on Monday the 24th day of May next, under the superintendance of John MacMillan, C. Chalmers, P. Perry, D. McLeran and J. Winslow. The books to be opened at 10 o'clock A. M. and to be kept open until 2 o'clock P. M. of that day, and in case the Shares for which they are respectively open shall not be subscribed on that day, they shall be kept open the same time from day to day, for the four succeeding days, at each place respectively, unless the Shares authorized to be subscribed for are sooner taken up.

That the amount of the Share or Shares subscribed for shall be paid by the several and respective subscribers in Gold or Silver or in such money as this Bank usually receives in payment—One fourth thereof at the time of subscribing shall be paid to the Commissioners—one fourth at sixty days—one fourth at one hundred and twenty days—and the remaining fourth on the first day of January 1815. The payment shall be made at the Bank or to the Agent at Fayetteville as the subscriptions may have been made, but the holders of the Stock thus created shall not be entitled to receive or participate in any dividend, or other division of the profit declared previous to said 1st January, 1815.

In the event of a greater number of Shares being subscribed for on said ninth of May next, at either place than is authorized, the Commissioners shall proceed to subtract from the subscription or subscriptions highest in amount, a share or shares, until the aggregate of all the subscriptions be reduced to the number of shares authorized to be subscribed for at said places respectively.

And if, by and after the operation of such subtraction (as often as the same shall be necessarily made and repeated as aforesaid) a greater number of Shares may be allowed to one or more of the subscribers, than to the rest, or if the number of Shares shall eventually be greater than the number of Shares authorized at said places respectively, then and in either of the before mentioned cases, the Commissioners shall a certain day lot, in whom, the greater number of Shares, or the right of subscribing for, and retaining one Share, (as the case may be) shall be vested—And the person or persons, in whose favor the lot may thereupon fall, shall be deemed to all intents and purposes the lawful subscriber and subscribers for such share or shares respectively.

Subscriptions may be made in person or by proxy, appointed by writing.
N. B.—Subscribers paying by anticipation will be allowed discount on the same at the rate of 5 per cent.
