P R O P O S A L S

For PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION,

THE Office and Authority of a Justice of Peace, as well within their County Courts, as without. Also, the Duty of Sheriffs, Constables, Coroners, Churchwardens, Overseers of Roads, and all other Judicial and Ministerial Officers within this Province: wherein the Nature of their several Offices will be described, their Duty pointed out, and the Manner of their Appointment shewn. To which will be added, all Manner of Precedents in Use and Practice in this Province. The whole adapted to the Laws, Customs, and Usage of the Country.

C O N D I T I O N S.

I. THIS WORK will contain about Thirty Sheets in Octavo, and be printed on a good Paper and Letter.

II. THAT it will be delivered to the Subscribers, well bound in Leather, at 13 s. 4 d. each.

III. THAT it will be done on the same Plan with the Office of a Justice published in Virginia by Mr. Webb, some Years ago, and that Book followed, as far as 'tis agreeable to the Practice of this Province.

The Utility of this WORK speaks for itself, especially in a young Country, where it may be supposed many Officers are ignorant of their Duty, and many Irregularities and Misprisions likely to happen, in the Discharge of their several Offices.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in at the Printing Office in Newbern, and Papers will be sent to the several Counties.

FIVE POUNDS Reward,

RAN away from the Subscriber, about the first of February, a Malatto or Muskee Slave, called Tony, about 24 Years of Age, with long stiff black Hair, and greatly the Looks and Colour of an Indian: He is about 5 Feet 9 Inches high, and strong limbed, and is used to work at the Carpenters Trade: Had on when he went away, a homespun Jacket, and old Coat girt round him with a broad buff Belt, and a large Brass Buckle. Whoever brings the said Slave to the Subscriber in Newbern, or procures him so as to be recovered, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, and all reasonable charges. William Powell.
