And whereas an Act was made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King

George the Second, entitled, An Act for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, which was to continue in Force for Five Years, to be computed from the 24th Day of June, 1733, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which, by several subsequent Acts made in the 11th, the 19th, the 26th, the 29th, and the 31st Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty, was, from Time to Time continued; and by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, was further continued until the End of this present Session of Parliament; and although the said Act hath been found in some Degree useful, yet it is highly expedient that the same should be altered, enforced, and made more effectual; but, in Consideration of the great Distance of several of the said Colonies and Plantations from this Kingdom, it will be proper further to continue the said Act for a short Space, before any Alterations and Amendments shall take Effect, in order that all Persons concerned may have due and proper Notice thereof; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, entitled, An Act for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued, until the 30th Day of September, 1764.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from the 29th Day of September, 1764, the said Act, subject to such Alterations and Amendments as are herein after contained, shall be, and the same is hereby made perpetual.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu and instead of the Rate and Duty imposed by the said Act upon Molasses and Syrups, there shall, from and after the said 29th Day of September, 1764, be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Gallon of Molasses or Syrups, being the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any Colony or Plantation in America, not under the Dominion of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, which shall be imported or brought into any Colony or Plantation in America, which now is, or hereafter may be, under the Dominion of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, the Sum of Three Pence. And
