SAMUEL CORNELL.

Clearmont, Sept. 21, 1764.

THIS is to inform the Public, that as I have such repeated Acts of Villany committed on my Plantation, by my own Negroes, in stealing my Corn, Potatoes, &c. and carrying the same to Town, and there dispose of them to Persons who make it their constant Practice to deal with Negroes: I am, for the future, determined to prosecute, with the utmost Rigour of the Law, any Person or Persons that shall deal in any Manner or or Respect whatsoever with any of my Negroes, without their first producing to the Purchaser a Certificate, signed by Me, of their having Leave to dispose of the Commodity offered for Sale. And any Person that will inform Me, so that his Testimony will support a legal Prosecution, of any Person or Persons hereafter dealing with any of my Slaves, without the Certificate aforesaid, shall be paid a Reward of Forty Shillings Proclamation Money, for each Prosecution which his Evidence will support, by Thomas Clifford Howe.

LOST out of the Subscriber's Pocket, a small Pinch beck Watch, with a Steel Chain, the Dyal Plate gilt, the Gilding wore off the back-side of her, has no Number, but in the upper Part of the Pendulum has a small Diamon-cut Stone confined to the Cock by a small Screw-pin, the Makers Name Herbt. Bayby, London. Any Person that will bring her to me shall have Forty Shillings Reward, and no Questions asked.
