

of the Country, in Lieu of white ones, that are seldom drawn on a second Time. They may be made from 2s. or 2s. 6d. to 6s. It lays with the Glovers to exhibit Patterns for the above, and indeed for General Use. Such as are most suitable to the Climate will be best; and it might not be amiss if some peculiar Mark of Distinction were put upon them, suppose a Bow and Arrow, or Pine-Tree, in lieu of the usual stitching on the Back.
